FBI Cancels Pickup Order For 'Suspect'

Agents Won't Say Why They Sought Galt In King Case

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The FBI issued, then withdrew, a pickup order for Eric Starvo Galt, a Birmingham, Ala., white man as the widescale investigation of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., entered its second week.

Federal agents refused to say why they were seeking Galt.

The bulletin distributed on the statewide police teletype network in Florida said Galt was driving a white Mustang. Witnesses in Memphis told investigators earlier they saw a man in a white Mustang drive away from the rooming house from which King was shot last Thursday night.

At about the same time the pickup order was sent in Florida, federal agents in Atlanta impounded a white Mustang that had been parked since last Friday at a public housing project near the Georgia state Capitol.

The message, withdrawn with the explanation that it was released by mistake, described Galt as a white male, 36 years old, about 5-foot-11 and 175 pounds with blue eyes and brown hair.

This roughly matched the description circulated by federal authorities the night of King's slaying.

Special Agent John Hanlong of the Miami FBI office, who withdrew the pickup order about four hours after it was issued, said, "I cannot comment," when asked for further details.

Moon Eclipse Due Tonight

If the weather is clear, a total eclipse of the moon tonight and early Saturday will be visible throughout nearly all of North and South America.

Those who miss the celestial show will have to wait until 1971 for a rerun.

The full moon will slip into the inter shadow of the earth at 10:10 p. m. (East Liverpool time), with the total eclipse due to begin at 11:22 and end at 12:12 a.m.

A lunar eclipse occurs when the moon enters the earth's 900,000-mile-long shadow. The moon orbits the earth at an average distance of about 239,000 miles, but occasionally passes completely into the shadow.

Ordinarily, an eclipse of the moon can be observed from a backyard, while solar eclipses often require a long journey to reach the path of totality.

Klondyke Crash Hurts Man, Wife

An East Liverpool couple was injured Thursday night in a spectacular traffic mishap on Harvey Ave., Klondyke, in which their auto traveled out of control for more than 300 feet, hitting a utility pole and a gas company metering station before coming to a halt on the brink of a 50-foot drop overlooking railway tracks, police reported.

Raymond D. Humphreys, 54, of 1650 Cleveland Ave., the driver, and his wife, Mrs. Wyema Humphreys, were taken to City Hospital after the crash at 9:40 on Harvey Ave. a quarter-mile west of the Ohio - Pennsylvania state line.

She is "fair" with a laceration of the right forehead and contusions of the left shoulder. He was treated for multiple lacerations of the scalp and left forehead.

POLICE said Humphreys' westbound 1963 sedan went out of control after striking the front bumper of a westbound 1964 sedan operated by Terry L. Boyer, 21, of Burgettstown. The collision with Boyer's car apparently threw Humphreys' auto out of control. The local motorist was cited on a reckless driving charge by Patrolman Charles Coen, the investigating officer.

After colliding with Boyer's car, Humphreys' auto hit the berm and then traveled on a long diagonal for 192 feet, crossing the street and hitting a utility pole owned by the Ohio Power Co., officers said. The auto continued 104 feet, striking the corner of a sheet metal building used as a metering station by the Ohio Valley Gas Co., officers said. The auto went another 10 feet, coming to a halt on a concrete abutment overlooking a 50-foot drop onto the railroad tracks, police said.

Before hitting the metering station, the auto struck two six-inch metal pipes set vertically in the ground in front of the structure to protect it from traffic, officers said. The pipes were uprooted.

Man Given Prison Term; Youth Put On Probation

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard sentenced a Wellsville man to the penitentiary Thursday in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon and ordered an East Liverpool youth to spend three months in the County Jail as a condition of probation.

George Deem Jr., 39, of 800 Broadway was sentenced to 1 to 25 years in the state prison at Columbus for a holdup Oct. 9 at the Little Diner on Harvey Ave.

David J. Cunningham, 19, of 114 E. 2nd St., who pleaded guilty to a charge of harboring and concealing a felon, was placed on probation for five years.

Other conditions of probation are "that he be of exemplary conduct while in jail, be of good behavior and obey all rules and orders of the court, desist from associating with anyone of known criminal tendencies, report monthly to the adult probation officer and pay court costs."

Judge Buzzard warned Cunningham that if he violates any of the terms, the fact that he may have served three months in jail shall not be considered as any sentence in this case.

Deem, a former steelworker at the Midland Division of the Crucible Steel Co., was indicted by the January grand jury in connection with five robberies. He pleaded guilty only to the Oct. 9 robbery at the Little Diner and the hearing yesterday was on his request for probation for that offense.

Taking the witness stand, he testified he drove the car for the Little Diner robbery and also shared in money taken in an Oct. 10 robbery at Gilmore's Service Station in Glenmoor and an Oct. 14 robbery at Saltsman's Drugstore in Calcutta.

Deem was indicted also for robberies July 24 at Adrian's

Johnson Slates Meeting With South Korea Chief

Will Leave For Hawaii From Texas

Talks Planned Last Week Canceled Due To Racial Flareup

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House said today President Johnson will meet Wednesday in Honolulu with President Chung Hee Park of South Korea.

The announcement said Johnson would leave for Hawaii from his Texas ranch where he will spend the Easter Weekend.

The meeting with Park had been planned for last weekend, when Johnson was scheduled to fly to Honolulu to meet also with his advisers from Vietnam.

But that trip was canceled after violence erupted in the nation's capital and other U.S. cities following the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Instead, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U. S. military commander in Vietnam, and Ellsworth Bunker, ambassador to South Vietnam, flew to Washington for conferences.

South Korea has nearly 50,000 combat troops in South Vietnam and has asked for a voice in any peace negotiations.

The discussions also would presumably include South Korean tensions over signs of increased aggression by North Korea and the captured U. S. intelligence ship Pueblo and its 82 crewmen now held in North Korea.

Hancock Boy Dies As Rope Snares Neck

A 15 - year - old New Cumberland area youth died Thursday afternoon when he became entangled in a rope over a tree branch and was accidentally hanged.

Wayne Douglas Hall of Rainey Hill, a stuudent at Weirton Junior High School, was found hanging in the tree about 5:50 p. m. near his home.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall, he had arrived home from school and performed some chores around the house.

Having some time to play before his father returned from the Weirton Steel Co., the youth apparently threw the rope over a branch of the tree, probably trying to loosen it.

When the limb broke, he apparently became entangled in the rope which caught around his neck, Hancock County Coroner John D. Herron said in ruling the death an accident.

A broken limb was found at the site, and there was no noose in the rope, Herron said. The youth had been dead about two hours when discovered, he added.

The victim was born in Steubenville May 5, 1952, a son of Clarence and Betty Marie Grimes Hall.

Besides his parents, he is survived by a sister, Mary Roxann Hall at home, and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Roxie Hall of Cairo, W. Va.

Services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 at the Fields Funeral Home at New Cumberland by Allen S. Fields of the New Cumberland Christian Church. Burial will be in Chapel Hill Cemetery at Weirton.

Friends may call tonight, Saturday and Sunday at the funeral home.

Civil Rights Bill Signed By President

Voices Outrage At Slaying Of King, Rioting Afterward

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, voicing outrage at the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King and the violence that followed it, has signed an historic open-housing bill as a federal task force girded to enforce the new law.

It is the third landmark civil rights bill to become law since Johnson entered the White House.

"All America is outraged at the assassination" of King, the President told a crowd of civil rights leaders, Congress members and government leaders in the East Room of the White House Thursday. "And America is also outraged at the looting and burning that defiles our democracy.

"We just must put our shoulders together and put a stop to both," he said of the violence that takes the lives of men like King and of the slum riots.

The signing came one week after King's death in Memphis, Tenn. The President recalled that King was among the civil rights leaders who met with him two years ago to lay the groundwork for an open-housing bill.

Mrs. King was invited to attend the ceremony but could not arrange to be in Washington, White House aides said.

The new law will prohibit discrimination in 80 per cent of all housing sales and rentals by 1970, but much of it takes effect next Jan. 1.

The law also makes it a federal crime to use threats or violence to interfere with anyone seeking to exercise his civil rights and prohibits the crossing of state lines with intent to incite rioting.

The measure follows up the 1964 Civil Rights Act which Congress sent to Johnson eight months after the death of President John F. Kennedy, another assassination victim. That measure opened up all public accommodations to Negroes and strengthened their voting rights. In 1966 Johnson signed the Voting Rights Bill which outlawed literacy tests as a requirement for voting.

128 Of Enemy Slain

GIs Turn Back Attack By Reds

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. foot soldiers, artillery and dive bombers repulsed 400 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops who stormed an American bivouac today and drove to within a few feet of the GI's foxholes.

After five hours of close-quarter fighting in War Zone C 49 miles northwest of Saigon, Vietnamese and Viet Cong fled, leaving 128 of their dead and more than 50 weapons on the battlefield.

All of the enemy bodies were found inside or on the fringes of the American perimeter. AP photographer Al Chang reported from the battlefield that more bodies were probably farther out, victims of the massive air and artillery strikes.

Sixteen U.S. troops were killed and 47 wounded.

Chang said the fighting was at such close range that at one point the 25th Division infantrymen fixed their bayonets as their ammunition ran low. They didn't have to use them.

Two Americans were found dead inside their bunker. Around them were the bodies of eight Viet Cong, gunned down by the two Americans before they were killed.

A radio operator held out against 10 Viet Cong until a company commander, Lt. Richard J. Prairie of Kankakee, Ill., and three other infantrymen reinforced him. Prairie was awarded a Silver Star on the spot.

The heavy fighting broke a week-long lull in the Vietnam war and was the first major action reported in Operation Complete Victory, the biggest allied campaign of the war in which 100,000 troops are sweeping through 11 provinces around Saigon.

A battalion of 25th Division infantrymen on a reconnaissance mission had taken up defensive positions for the night in a clearing of a heavily wooded area.

White House Objects To Warsaw

U.S., Hanoi Hassle Goes On Over Site For Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials say the lengthening hassle between Washington and Hanoi over a site for preliminary talks signals the kind of difficulties expected when and if peace negotiations get under way.

They noted it has been more than a week since the opposing sides publicly declared their readiness for contacts. And on the record, the maneuvering to date has involved only initial talks—rather than negotiations—aimed only at setting the stage for an actual peace conference.

The White House objected to Warsaw, which the North Vietnamese proposed Thursday, on the ground the capital of Communist Poland would not provide a neutral, fair setting.

The North Vietnamese have so far refused to accept U.S. site suggestions that are known to include Geneva, Switzerland; Rangoon, Burma; Vientiane, Laos; New Delhi, India; Jakarta, Indonesia; Vienna, Austria; Berne, Switzerland, and Bonn, West Germany.

The United States also objected to Hanoi's choice of Phnom Penh, Cambodia, on grounds Washington no longer has diplomatic relations with the neutral nation, a situation raising communications and logistic problems.

Presidential press secretary George Christian said the U.S. government first learned of North Vietnam's proposal to meet at Warsaw from reading the Soviet news agency Tass — and only later received the Hanoi message through official diplomatic channels.

County Seeks U.S. Help For Office Annex

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Thursday authorized Robert Beatty, East Liverpool architect, to make application immediately for a federal grant to be used in building a Courthouse annex.

Commissioners voted March 7 to build an addition on the Courthouse parking lot at the southwest corner of the building.

Plans for a three-story addition were prepared by Beatty in 1951. He estimated the cost at $250,000.

Commissioners purchased a disc harrow from Salona Supply Co. of Salem on a bid of $750, the lowest of four proposals.

Samuel McCullough of Wellsville RD 1, Madison Township, was allowed a claim of $40 for two pigs destroyed by stray dogs.

$45 Million Estimated In Riot Damage

By The Associated Press

Insurers put preliminary estimates of riot damage in Chicago at $10 million, in Baltimore at between $8 million and $10 million. Washington, D.C., officials estimate building damage alone at $13.3 million.

The number of homeless in Chicago is estimated at upward of 500. In Newark the figure is set at 60 and in the nation's capital a guess on the homeless is placed at between 1,200 and 1,400.

These were some of the preliminary figures available today as city officials, insurance adjustors and welfare workers began the months-long job of assembling a statistical picture of riot damage.

An Associated Press survey showed the pattern and extent of damage during the week-long wave of disorders following the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. seemed to vary from city to city.

Thus Chicago reported many businesses damaged were owned by Negroes although no breakdown was available. In Pittsburgh it appeared that mostly white-owned firms were firebombed and looted while many Negro-owned shops and bars with "soul brother" signs went untouched.

No overall figure on total damage was available but the American Insurance Association and the General Adjustment Bureau said Thursday that insured losses could cost insurance companies $45 million or more.

The figure was "up to date as of Wednesday" and was "conservatively estimated," they said. The bureau said payout figures were "revised as new incidents took place and as a more exact evaluation of earlier incidents became possible."

Total damage can be expected to run well above insured losses. In Chicago the federal Small Business Administration estimated small businesses suffered $7 million to $10 million in damage with more than half uninsured.

Insurance policies of many merchants were canceled following the 1966 disturbances on the West Side. Also, many properties destroyed were uninsurable because of building code violations.

Some Chicago merchants said immediately after the rioting that they had been wiped out financially and did not plan to resume business but no statistics were yet available.

Historical Unit To Join In Fair, Other Activities

LISBON — The Columbiana County Historical Association plans to participate in the County Fair in August.

President John C. Simonds of Leetonia appointed Robert Wade of Salem and Paul Hughes of Wellsville to meet with the fair directors and make recoommendations to the association.

Also discussed at the group's business meeting Wednesday night at Lisbon Village Hall were plans for the dedication of a bronze marker at a reconstructed log church on the grounds at St. Philip Neri Catholic Church in Dungannon and participation in Lisbon's Johnny Appleseed Festival next fall.

Simonds said the association is open to anyone intrested in history. He said he is particularly interested in enrolling representatives from city and village historical societies.

Leslie Jones of St. Clair Township plans to have the toastmasters Club of East Liverpool present the program at the next meeting May 8 at Village Hall.

Association members will attend the county forests and Parks Council meeting April 25 at 8 p.m. at Williamsport Chapel.

Riot Victim Aid Asked In Mill Creek Church

Students from the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, who have been serving as supply pastors at the Mill Creek United Presbyterian Church in Hookstown during Sunday services, are seeking food and clothing for families left homeless in Pittsburgh because of the recent riots.

Members of the congregation are asked to bring items to the Easter morning worship and to the April 21 worship to be turned over to agencies for distribution.

The services during April, May and June are being held in the Hookstown church building, it was announced.

Stolen Area Car Swept By Flames

The interior of an auto, reported stolen early today from Salem, was swept by fire near East Liverpool, Columbiana County sheriff's deputies report.

Jane Mowery, owner of the 1963 convertible, said it was taken about 2:30 a.m.

The fire was discovered about 6:45 along the Calcutta-Smiths Ferry Rd. 2.5 miles east of Calcutta. The auto was about 25 feet down an embankment.

The Calcutta fire department sent two men and one truck to the scene. About 30 minutes were required to extinguish the blaze with a booster line.

Good Friday Amnesty Frees Man From Jail

An East Liverpool man awaiting disposition of four traffic charges won release from City Jail this morning under the annual Good Friday "amnesty" order of Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, but he has instructions to return to jail Monday morning.

The judge issued his annual order for release of minor offenders to permit them to attend Good Friday church services, if they wish. He found the jail held only one prisoner — Robert Donahue of Dresden Ave., who pleaded guilty Thursday on the four traffic counts.

Since Donahue is on parole from the Ohio State Reformatory, the judge said he will delay disposition of the case until he talks with the parole officer.

108 Get Early Ballots For May 7 Primaries

The County Election Board said today it has issued 108 civilian and soldier absentee ballots to date for the May 7 primary elections.

The board said 86 of the "early" ballots have been issued under the "soldier voting" law, covering service personnel and their spouses and civilians residing temporarily outside the U.S.

Twenty - two have been issued under the law for conventional civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots. Approximately 70 more have requested applications for the civilian ballots.

13 New Charges Filed In Cleanup By 'Meter Maids'

Continuing a cleanup of old parking tickets, "Meter Maids" filed 13 more charges today in Municipal Court against persons who allegedly have ignored the citations.

The court staff will prepare warrants, which then will be served on the defendants to compel their appearance before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff. A dozen or more drivers already have been haled into court in the last few weeks.

Meanwhile, Frank Youst Jr. of 1015 Bradshaw Ave. paid a $63.50 penalty in court today on a charge he had ignored 24 tickets.

Pleading guilty to a charge by "Meter Maid" Kay Waters, he was fined $56 and $7.50 costs by Judge Chertoff.

The usual penalty is a fine of $10 and $7.50 costs for the first ticket and $2 for each additional citation.

Any Copestick Parole Not Due For 20 Years

Gov. James A. Rhodes commuted the death sentence handed down by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Common Pleas Court at Lisbon in November 1966 after a jury convicted Copestick of killing his estranged wife, Rebecca Mae, 19. She was shot five times in the head.

Steubenville College Acquires More Land

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio — Acquisition of 26.33 acres of land adjoining The College of Steubenville on College Heights was made public today by the Rev. Columba J. Devlin, T.O.R., president.

The property was purchased from the Weirton Construction Co. No purchase price was announced.

The transaction enlarged the campus to slightly more than 70 acres and will provide an area for recreational purposes and future expansion.

"We were gratified to be able to acquire this property," Fr. Devlin said. "It is essential to our expansion program in the years ahead, and had we been unable to purchase it, further growth would have been almost impossible."

Extravagance The U.S. Can't Afford

The U.S. Command in Saigon reports the number of Americans killed last week was the lowest since the end of January.

Even so, 279 American servicemen were killed and 3,190 wounded. The death toll is sizable in that it occurred during a period of few ground contacts between Americans and North Vietnamese.

The snuffing out of 279 more American lives is a painful reminder that the slow pace of preliminary talks exacts a brutal price in American blood.

If the solution to the Vietnam War is going to be developed around the negotiating table — as Americans and North Vietnamese are currently indicating — then the sacrifice of hundreds more troops is foolhardy.

American officers in Saigon feel the enemy is reeling from losses sustained during the Tet offensive. They say this accounts for a lack of offensive effort on the part of the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese at this time.

The Americans, on the other hand, have launched an ambitious offensive effort in search of an elusive enemy.

President Johnson has said time and again the United States is not seeking a military victory. In light of such a position and with the peace talk campaign moving ahead slowly, a defensive posture on the part of the United States seems logical.

Protecting positions now held against sporadic thrusts by the North Vietnamese — which commanders say are diminishing — would preserve American lives that would be lost to snipers bullets and mines during offensive activity.

Although de-escalated somewhat, daily bombing of strategic supply routes prevents a big equipment buildup and a general offensive maneuver by the enemy.

Perhaps the U.S. Command feels the psychological effect of continued American offensive operations during upcoming talks is worth the cost in lives.

It seems to us that as many lives as possible should be spared until it is clear where the peace talks are leading. The United States has spent more than 20,000 lives to get to the negotiating table.

Now that firm diplomatic contact has been made to arrange a round of talks, further loss of lives not absolutely necessary to maintain the allied position in Vietnam is an extravagance the United States cannot afford.

Something Rotten In Detroit

A classic example of why there is nationwide reluctance to accept the antipoverty program with open arms is shaping up in Detroit.

Evidence is mounting that Detroit's antipoverty agency ran a loose operation that resulted in waste of federal funds and failed to reach a large percentage of the city's poor.

Investigators are checking the agency's books to learn why $50 million in federal money hasn't been showing a better return.

They are asking why only 52,283 of the city's 249,718 poor residents have participated in agency programs.

Other questions being asked in the intensive probe include:

Why has the agency paid rent during the past two years that nearly equals the $180,000 value of its headquarters building?

Why was $80,000 spent on dental equipment in mid-1966 and only four patients treated so far?

Why have on-the-job training payments continued to go to employers for workers who had dropped out of the program?

Why is it that $150,000 has been spent on developing performance measurement techniques and officials still are unable to provide routine statistics for a report to the Office of Economic Opportunityg

Many other questions are being asked concerning overlapping programs and a lack of results.

Only two other cities, Chicago and New York, have received more federal antipoverty funds than Detroit.

Yet Detroit was the scene of unbelievable destruction in last summer's rioting.

Evidence being turned up in the intensive probe of Detroit's administration of antipoverty funds must be taken into account in any assessment of solutions to slum problems.

In some cases, good administration and quality antipoverty programs have shown highly satisfactory results.

But the lesson being taught in Detroit is there should be no sacred cows in the antipoverty program. Waste must be cut out and unworkable programs cast aside.

The public is in no mood to tolerate waste. Officials who do not push for a real effort on federal, state and local levels to tighten up operations and concentrate on projects that have been effective are running the risk of losing the whole program down the drain—good points and bad.

Social Democratization

It takes an expert to accurately comprehend the terminology used by Communist states in describing their forms of government, and movements and trends within them.

The latest phrase to appear comes out of Czechoslovakia — "social democratization."

On the face of it, the words sound pretty good to inhabitants of the Western world. Coupled with recent news out of Czechoslovakia, which indicates liberalization and greater freedoms for the people, "social democratization" sound encouraging.

Talk of a new constitution embodying guarantees for these new rights also is exiciting news.

Some of these changes would allow Czech citizens to travel freely abroad and reside in Western countries, permit issuance of passports without regard to the traveler's political attitudes, reduce the power of the secret police and end "factual preliminary censorship."

All of this movement toward more independence on the part of Czechoslovakia as it tries to combine democracy with communism has the eyes of the world focused upon it.

But despite a freer life, the Communist leadership has maintained discipline and control.

The people themselves are now watching closely to see how far the new leadership under Alexander Dubcek will go in guaranteeing the new liberties.

Though these changes may not come fast enough to suit the West, any movement to "democratize" must be accepted joyfully and endorsed by anti-Communist nations.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I would like to commend the men of both the LaCroft Volunteer Fire Department and the Glenmoor Volunteer Fire Department. They responded to an alarm Saturday morning for a garage fire at the Taylor home on Densmore Ave.

This was my first opportunity to watch our firemen in action, and I was impressed, to say the least. It was easily discerned that these men were well trained, and had a deep interest in what they were doing. They were successful in containing the fire, safeguarding the homes on both sides of the garage.

Often we take this work for granted, but we must remember that we owe much to these civic-minded men who comprise our volunteer fire department. They stand ready at any hour for any crisis that develops in the community, and I would like to go on record, as a relatively newcomer to the LaCroft area, saying that I sincerely appreciate the work of our Fire Department.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

We were all saddened and shocked to hear of the tragedy which occurred last Thursday night. I feel this bereavement entered every American's home.

Many people react in different ways in different situations. This is the case now. However, all this violence is unnecessary. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. stood for what is right and any peaceful way to accomplish this right without violence.

Many of the mayors in some of our well known cities permitted its citizens to march. If these very same people would have assisted him in his struggle by giving us our opportunities by qualifications instead of race, he would probably be living today.

Like Dr. King, I too have a dream: I dream someday we will all black and white work, play and do everything else together we usually confine to our separate races. I dream one day we will be able to cheer boys on to victory, instead of trying and having out-yell the other spectators in the stands.

Yes, my fellow Americans, I dream someday I will be able to walk through the streets of Alabama, Georgia, Texas and Tennessee without being afraid of my own shadow.

My heart shall be flooded with tears when I can truthfully stand and say, "Free at last, free at last, I have God Almight, I'm free at last."

'Is This MY Image?'

VICTOR RIESEL

Reuther Liked King's Ideas

WASHINGTON — Walter Reuther, grimly enough, is no stranger to the eerie, sickening sound of an assassin's bullets. The "now" generation may not know, and their elders may not recall, that exactly 20 years ago a gunman almost cut the redhead in half.

Victor Riesel

And so, perhaps, he felt more sharply the sting of the bullet which cut down his close friend, Martin Luther King.

But their affinity springs from more than being stalked by a killer. In recent years they worked together on a common front under the embattled slogan: "Organize the working poor."

It is the way of yesterday's news to fade and die when its dead are buried. But this time, Walter Reuther, around whom men wept at the report of the murder, may well keep the story from slipping off into yellowing clippings.

There are those around the auto union chief who believe he sees the killing of the black leader as the signal for a massive "community union" drive in the turbulent fire and riot-ravaged central cities.

He believes that American labor has the money and the strength to go into the inner core with thousands of shop stewards, business agents, and top union officials to blend the trade union and civil rights campaigns into one sweeping drive.

Together, he and Martin Luther King invaded Chicago several years ago on the tenants union front. The UAW dispatched scores of field organizers and other officials to act as the Reverend's advisors, lieutenants and troops in the "rent" offensives.

HE BELIEVES that the murdered man's objective in Memphis was exactly the same goal they both fought for in Chicago — the blending of the rights drive with the labor movement.

"It's the only way," said one of his most intimate aides, literally weeping, the day after the assassination.

This "dream" of Reuther's will not be well received in many of labor's temples. There — whether in old, one-story brick "taxpayers" structures of the nation's middletowns, or in the marble halls of this capital — trade unionists, old and younger, still say that "Memphis should have been strictly a labor beef."

They still believe that more can be won by straight trade union action, striking hard and bargaining "tough" with the employer in the private or public sector.

But Reuther and his people point to the "working poor" who already have been organized into community unions — a mixture of Hull House, political district club and local union.

The Reuther people point to the Watts Labor Community Action Committee. It was launched back in '64 by 11 unions, led mostly by auto workers, and by a group from UCLA. When the WLCAC wants to mobilize politically, it can. Recently they rounded up a million signatures on a petition for a big county hospital in Watts since the nearest hospital was some 10 to 15 miles from the Watts area.

They got the votes. They will get the hospital. Some 1,500 of Watts' people will work in it — and already are in training classes preparing to staff it.

They can picket. They did when they wanted to rid the once riot-strewn area of a 25-year-old tire dump, the world's biggest, they say. They picketed peacefully. They got action.

THEY CAN'T GO OUT to the country, so they brought the hinterland to Watts by setting up a "sizable poultry ranch" in the heart of Watts.

They have mighty tough teenagers (60 per cent of them are fatherless), so they rounded up experienced union men each acting as counselor for some 20 to 30 youths — as friend, advisor, group leader, and father.

"The way we have been able to put together people in the community," said UAW regional chief Paul Scrade, "is by canvassing the unions that have members in the Watts area. We go through this kind of recruiting program by talking to local union leadership.

"Who from Watts is a leader in your local union? Who looks like he might be a leader? Who are members who might want to get involved? And we have been effective in building a core of people, and then expanding out to the people who are not union members as well, people who are unemployed, who live in the slums."

Thus the Reuther people see it swelling up in the Wattses and Harlems and East Chicagos of the land. Thus, as Martin Luther King and Reuther planned it, they will community-ize and unionize.

Thev will bergain not only with employers but with landlords on rents, welfare agencies over relief, with the OEO poverty offices for more projects and with the city halls for wider powers for the working poor in the municipal power structures.

And in the rural and urban ghettos, Reuther believes, there wait some 35 million poor.

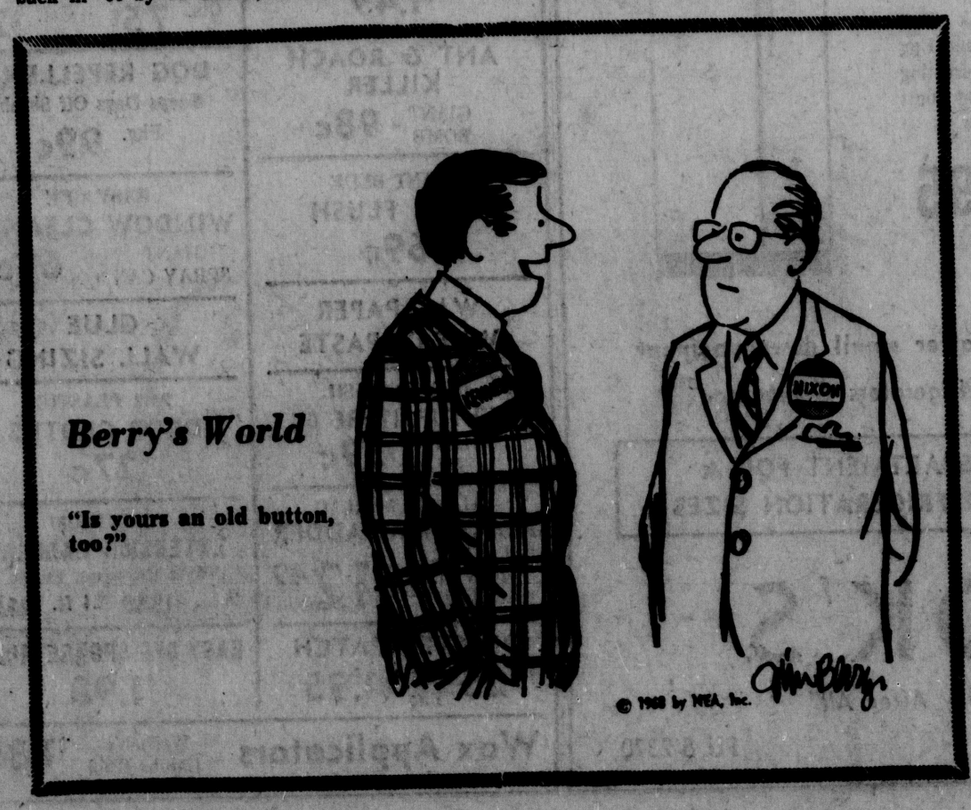

That's how Martin Luther King saw it too.

Red Sea Power

A highly talented naval historian, Rear Adm. John D. Hayes, USN (Ret.), has noted that "geography has been both kind and cruel to Russia." Napoleon, Hitoler and other international marauders have been defeated in efforts to subdue that country by land. But for a century, British sea power repeatedly frustrated the czars' expansionist designs through the Black and Baltic seas.

In our time, the nature of the Russian terrain has prevented the Soviet Union from developing an integrated economy capable of matching that of the United States. The reason has been the lack of an internal transportation system. Its rivers run the wrong way and are frozen a large part of the year. Its inland seas, unlike our Great Lakes, are land-locked.

The vital elements in a transportation system, railroads and highways, are inadequate. It was Adm. Hayes, I believe, who first pointed to the reason for that deficiency. He said it is because of the rock-poor soil. You can't build great highways and railroads without solid and water-resistant beds, especially in a country of such great size.

IN THE STALINIST era, the export of communism, and with it the fulfillment of Soviet dreams of worldwise subversion, had to be satisfied with creating satellites on the perimeter of the great land mass and with a worldwide network of propaganda and espionage. That could not suffice, however, in a world in which new and underdeveloped nations were rising behind the decay of European colonialism. To win footholds in those remote places and in the vulnerable Middle East, economic penetration and the export of military equipment were essential to Soviet designs.

Somewhere along the line after World War II, and especially when the Nikita Khrushchev era began, the Soviet government turned to sea power. But expansion by sea faced certain hard geographical realities. Their key ports—Murmansk Leningrad on the Baltic and Odessa on the Black Sea—were separated by the big peninsulas of Scandinavia and the rest of Europe. The means to expansion, therefore, was the building of an immense merchant fleet. We now know the near-miracle of its growth over the past 15 years.

Weapons of all sorts for North Vietnam and the Arab states of the Middle East are manufactured mainly in the industrial area near Odessa. But two-way passage from Odessa to the Mediterranean is no longer a problem. Thus the making of war by proxy is relatively easy. And the great economy of size and technology of the new Russian ships measurably makes up for the distances they must travel.

The Mediterranean, once "Mare Nostrum," is now open to the new strategy of the Soviet Union. It is this waterway that is vital to Russian designs for world expansion, especially in Vietnam. But the Israeli-Arab war closed the Suez Canal, and that has doubled the route from Odessa. With the canal open, the distance was 7,212 sea miles. Now it is 14,125 miles. But as our military forces know, the stuff has been getting there.

ALONG WITH this growth of Russian merchant shipping has been a rather conspicuous display of Soviet naval units in the Mediterranean. The Soviet government has not yet moved into real naval competition with the United States Because the Russians have not built aircraft carriers, there is currently a theoretical discussion over the nature of Soviet naval power—whether it is "offensive" or defensive."

The reality is that the Russians have built a great maritime strength, supported by naval units and perfectly suited to economic and political expansion around the globe. Moving into the Indian Ocean, they made an agreement with India, which had relied on British equipment, to supply submarines, frigates and other vessels. The first of the submarines will be delivered this month.

While officers of the American Navy have watched this Soviet maritime growth with more than casual interest, there is evidence that the administration and the top masters of the Defense Department went to suppress talk about it this year. Apparently, Americans have enough to worry about without looking a very few years ahead, when we will meet a truly severe challenge throughout the seas.

Extravagance The U.S. Can't Afford

The U.S. Command in Saigon reports the number of Americans killed last week was the lowest since the end of January.

Even so, 279 American servicemen were killed and 3,190 wounded. The death toll is sizable in that it occurred during a period of few ground contacts between Americans and North Vietnamese.

The snuffing out of 279 more American lives is a painful reminder that the slow pace of preliminary talks exacts a brutal price in American blood.

If the solution to the Vietnam War is going to be developed around the negotiating table — as Americans and North Vietnamese are currently indicating — then the sacrifice of hundreds more troops is foolhardy.

American officers in Saigon feel the enemy is reeling from losses sustained during the Tet offensive. They say this accounts for a lack of offensive effort on the part of the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese at this time.

The Americans, on the other hand, have launched an ambitious offensive effort in search of an elusive enemy.

President Johnson has said time and again the United States is not seeking a military victory. In light of such a position and with the peace talk campaign moving ahead slowly, a defensive posture on the part of the United States seems logical.

Protecting positions now held against sporadic thrusts by the North Vietnamese — which commanders say are diminishing — would preserve American lives that would be lost to snipers bullets and mines during offensive activity.

Although de-escalated somewhat, daily bombing of strategic supply routes prevents a big equipment buildup and a general offensive maneuver by the enemy.

Perhaps the U.S. Command feels the psychological effect of continued American offensive operations during upcoming talks is worth the cost in lives.

It seems to us that as many lives as possible should be spared until it is clear where the peace talks are leading. The United States has spent more than 20,000 lives to get to the negotiating table.

Now that firm diplomatic contact has been made to arrange a round of talks, further loss of lives not absolutely necessary to maintain the allied position in Vietnam is an extravagance the United States cannot afford.

Something Rotten In Detroit

A classic example of why there is nationwide reluctance to accept the antipoverty program with open arms is shaping up in Detroit.

Evidence is mounting that Detroit's antipoverty agency ran a loose operation that resulted in waste of federal funds and failed to reach a large percentage of the city's poor.

Investigators are checking the agency's books to learn why $50 million in federal money hasn't been showing a better return.

They are asking why only 52,283 of the city's 349,718 poor residents have participated in agency programs.

Other questions being asked in the intensive probe include:

Why has the agency paid rent during the past two years that nearly equals the $180,000 value of its headquarters building?

Why was $80,000 spent on dental equipment in mid-1966 and only four patients treated so far?

Why have on-the-job training payments continued to go to employers for workers who had dropped out of the program?

Why is it that $150,000 has been spent on developing performance measurement techniques and officials still are unable to provide routine statistics for a report to the Office of Economic Opportunityg

Many other questions are being asked concerning overlapping programs and a lack of results.

Only two other cities, Chicago and New York, have received more federal antipoverty funds than Detroit.

Yet Detroit was the scene of unbelievable destruction in last summer's rioting.

Evidence being turned up in the intensive probe of Detroit's administration of antipoverty funds must be taken into account in any assessment of solutions to slum problems.

In some cases, good administration and quality antipoverty programs have shown highly satisfactory results.

But the lesson being taught in Detroit is there should be no sacred cows in the antipoverty program. Waste must be cut out and unworkable programs cast aside.

The public is in no mood to tolerate waste. Officials who do not push for a real effort on federal, state and local levels to tighten up operations and concentrate on projects that have been effective are running the risk of losing the whole program down the drain—good points and bad.

Social Democratization

It takes an expert to accurately comprehend the terminology used by Communist states in describing their forms of government, and movements and trends within them.

The latest phrase to appear comes out of Czechoslovakia — "social democratization."

On the face of it, the words sound pretty good to inhabitants of the Western world. Coupled with recent news out of Czechoslovakia, which indicates liberalization and greater freedoms for the people, "social democratization" sound encouraging.

Talk of a new constitution embodying guarantees for these new rights also is exiciting news.

Some of these changes would allow Czech ciitzens to travel freely abroad and reside in Western countries, permit issuance of passports without regard to the traveler's political attitudes, reduce the power of the secret police and end "factual preliminary censorship."

All of this movement toward more independence on the part of Czechoslovakia as it tries to combine democracy with communism has the eyes of the world focused upon it.

But despite a freer life, the Communist leadership has maintained discipline and control.

The people themselves are now watching closely to see how far the new leadership under Alexander Dubcek will go in guaranteeing the new liberties.

Though these changes may not come fast enough to suit the West, any movement to "democratize" must be accepted joyfully and endorsed by anti-Communist nations.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I would like to commend the men of both the LaCroft Volunteer Fire Department and the Glenmoor Volunteer Fire Department. They responded to an alarm Saturday morning for a garage fire at the Taylor home on Densmore Ave.

This was my first opportunity to watch our firemen in action, and I was impressed, to say the least. It was easily discerned that these men were well trained, and had a deep interest in what they were doing. They were successful in containing the fire, safeguarding the homes on both sides of the garage.

Often we take this work for granted, but we must remember that we owe much to these civic-minded men who comprise our volunteer fire department. They stand ready at any hour for any crisis that develops in the community, and I would like to go on record, as a relatively newcomer to the LaCroft area, saying that I sincerely appreciate the work of our Fire Department.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

We were all saddened and shocked to hear of the tragedy which occurred last Thursday night. I feel this bereavement entered every American's home.

Many people react in different ways in different situations. This is the case now. However, all this violence is unnecessary. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. stood for what is right and any peaceful way to accomplish this right without violence.

Many of the mayors in some of our well known cities permitted its citizens to march. If these very same people would have assisted him in his struggle by giving us our opportunities by qualifications instead of race, he would probably be living today.

Like Dr. King, I too have a dream: I dream someday we will all black and white work, play and do everything else together we usually confine to our separate races. I dream one day we will be able to cheer boys on to victory, instead of trying and having out-yell the other spectators in the stands.

Yes, my fellow Americans, I dream someday I will be able to walk through the streets of Alabama, Georgia, Texas and Tennessee without being afraid of my own shadow.

My heart shall be flooded with tears when I can truthfully stand and say, "Free at last, free at last, I have God Almight, I'm free at last."

VICTOR RIESEL

Reuther Liked King's Ideas

WASHINGTON — Walter Reuther, grimly enough, is no stranger to the eerie, sickening sound of an assassin's bullets. The "now" generation may not know, and their elders may not recall, that exactly 20 years ago a gunman almost cut the redhead in half.

Victor Riesel

And so, perhaps, he felt more sharply the sting of the bullet which cut down his close friend, Martin Luther King.

But their affinity springs from more than being stalked by a killer. In recent years they worked together on a common front under the embattled slogan: "Organize the working poor."

It is the way of yesterday's news to fade and die when its dead are buried. But this time, Walter Reuther, around whom men wept at the report of the murder, may well keep the story from slipping off into yellowing clippings.

Slag Company Airs Problems

A delegation of Springlane residents visited the Midland Borough Council meeting Wednesday night to discuss the heavy dust problem created by slag crushing operations at Brown Brothers.

C. Gordon Harris, general superintendent of Brown Brothers Contractors, Inc. explained the problems facing the company. He said the company is well aware that residents are bothered by the dust from the plant. The firm has tried various methods of dust control, without much success, since taking over the operation from the Standard Slag Co. in June, 1966, he said.

"We have tried changing the quantities of water put on the slag at the blast furnace pits before it is dug. When too much water is put on, we find we cannot make a saleable product out of the slag," commented Harris.

THE FIRM sells slag from the blast furnace at the Midland Division of Crucible Steel Co. Harris said Crucible has cut down on the slag 50 percent because of a change in blast furnace operations since 1966. This, he added, has posed a serious financial problem for Brown Brothers.

Harris said the firm has investigated the possibility of installing dust control equipment, but finds this not practical because the plant is 40 years old. He said the dust problem has increased in the past 18 months, yet the operation or personnel has not changed.

He said Brown Brothers is seriously considering building a new plant to handle the blast furnace slag. He said this will mean a reduction in the labor force. The plant would be relocated so it wouldn't be near Midland homes.

Bill Wilson, slag sales director for Brown Brothers, and Jay Adams, design engineer, also attended the meeting. The three men had flown from Philadelphia to address the delegation of Springlane residents.

WILSON ASKED that they be permitted to attend the June 12 Council meeting to once again report to the delegation on the firm plans of the company to alleviate the dust, either by modern dust control equipment, or by building a new plant elsewhere.

Robert J. Masters, solicitor, suggested that Crucible also send a spokesman to the meeting to inform Council of their firm plans to secure smoke control in Midland. Mayor Eli G. Corak reported he met with John Strand, president, this week in an effort to get the company to curb the heavy orange smoke.

George Ford Jr. of Crucible's community relations office said Crucible would provide a smoke control progress report at the June 12 meeting.

Wilson said the federal and state air pollution laws are vague as yet, but perhaps by June, something definite will be known along this line.

In other business Mayor Corak said that sunken sidewalks in the Springlane area will be replaced by the Midland Municipal Authority. William Vinovich Sr., president, reported Matt Brozic, street foreman, and his crews are painting the swimming pool in readiness for the season to open Memorial Day.

—:—

MAYOR CORAK said the tennis courts are being painted and a schedule of recreation will be outlined by the recreation committees of Council and the school board. The Beaver County Recreation Department will assist in coordinating a program of tennis for Midland.

The Midland volunteer fire department asked Council's permission to build a picnic pavilion near the Lion's pavilion off Murphy's Hill Rd. Mayor Corak said the area was donated by Crucible to be used only for public recreation. The request will first have to be cleared with Crucible officials.

Mayor Corak asked Council to send another letter to W. S. Stephens, District 11 engineer of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, asking emergency help in repaving Midland Ave. to the Beaver Creek bridge because the area is now receiving very heavy truck and bus traffic. Copies of the letter will be sent Sen. Ernest Kline and Rep. Robert O. Davis.

Councilman Ray Presutti congratulated the Beaver County commissioners on their quick work in obtaining emergency paving and filling of potholes on the Beaver Creek Bridge.

IT WAS announced that the Department of Justice, Bureau of Correction had conducted the first 1968 inspection of the Borough jail and had found it operated satisfactorily and is clean in accordance with regulations.

Councilmen were invited to attend a meeting of the Beaver County Planning Commission April 18 at 7:30 p. m. at the Beaver Campus of Pennsylvania State University. A report will be given on a soil survey in Beaver County by Dr. Milford Helsing.

Bills paid totaled $12,779, including $5,002 for Workmen's Compensation Insurance on borough employes. Council will meet April 24 at 8 p. m.

Man Injured As Cars Ram

A Pittsburgh man was injured and both autos were badly damaged in a traffic accident Thursday morning investigated by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Stanley R. Label, 25, was treated at North Side Hospital Youngstown for injuries received at 9:30 a.m. when his 1964 coach, southbound on Route 170, was struck by a northbound 1967 coach, two miles north of Route 14.

Donald A. Hetric, 21, of 1195½ N. Market St., East Palestine, driver of the 1967 coach, told officers he swerved to avoid an unidentified vehicle and lost control of his car, which went left of center and hit the Label auto.

Officers said Hetrick was cited for reckless operation.

A car was damaged slightly in an accident Thursday midnight on Route 170 near the East Palestine corporation limits.

Officers said a 1967 coach, operated by Richard L. Harris, 19, of 591 Taggart St., East Palestine, northbound, was attempting to pass when the car immediately in front pulled out to pass also.

The Harris auto swerved, went off the left side of the roadway and struck a road sign, the patrol reported.

A driver gave his name and address then left the scene of the accident after he rammed a 1965 coach Thursday at 4 p.m. at the intersection of Routes 30 and 267.

Esther V. Smith, 58, of Burgettstown, Pa. told officers she had stopped at the stop sign on the end of the ramp on Route 30 when her car was struck in the rear by another car.

Officers said the Smith car received slight damage. Mrs. Smith did not file charges, the patrol added.

For Midland Council

Slag Company Airs Problems

A delegation of Springlane residents visited the Midland Borough Council meeting Wednesday night to discuss the heavy dust problem created by slag crushing operations at Brown Brothers.

C. Gordon Harris, general superintendent of Brown Brothers Contractors, Inc. explained the problems facing the company. He said the company is well aware that residents are bothered by the dust from the plant. The firm has tried various methods of dust control, without much success, since taking over the operation from the Standard Slag Co. in June, 1966, he said.

"We have tried changing the quantities of water put on the slag at the blast furnace pits before it is dug. When too much water is put on, we find we cannot make a saleable product out of the slag," commented Harris.

THE FIRM sells slag from the blast furnace at the Midland Division of Crucible Steel Co. Harris said Crucible has cut down on the slag 50 percent because of a change in blast furnace operations since 1966. This, he added, has posed a serious financial problem for Brown Brothers.

Harris said the firm has investigated the possibility of installing dust control equipment, but finds this not practical because the plant is 40 years old. He said the dust problem has increased in the past 18 months, yet the operation or personnel has not changed.

He said Brown Brothers is seriously considering building a new plant to handle the blast furnace slag. He said this will mean a reduction in the labor force. The plant would be relocated so it wouldn't be near Midland homes.

Bill Wilson, slag sales director for Brown Brothers, and Jay Adams, design engineer, also attended the meeting. The three men had flown from Philadelphia to address the delegation of Springlane residents.

WILSON ASKED that they be permitted to attend the June 12 Council meeting to once again report to the delegation on the firm plans of the company to alleviate the dust, either by modern dust control equipment, or by building a new plant elsewhere.

Robert J. Masters, solicitor, suggested that Crucible also send a spokesman to the meeting to inform Council of their firm plans to secure smoke control in Midland. Mayor Eli G. Corak reported he met with John Strand, president, this week in an effort to get the company to curb the heavy orange smoke.

George Ford Jr. of Crucible's community relations office said Crucible would provide a smoke control progress report at the June 12 meeting.

Wilson said the federal and state air pollution laws are vague as yet, but perhaps by June, something definite will be known along this line.

In other business Mayor Corak said that sunken sidewalks in the Springlane area will be replaced by the Midland Municipal Authority. William Vinovich Sr., president, reported Matt Brozic, street foreman, and his crews are painting the swimming pool in readiness for the season to open Memorial Day.

—:—

MAYOR CORAK said the tennis courts are being painted and a schedule of recreation will be outlined by the recreation committees of Council and the school board. The Beaver County Recreation Department will assist in coordinating a program of tennis for Midland.

The Midland volunteer fire department asked Council's permission to build a picnic pavilion near the Lion's pavilion off Murphy's Hill Rd. Mayor Corak said the area was donated by Crucible to be used only for public recreation. The request will first have to be cleared with Crucible officials.

Mayor Corak asked Council to send another letter to W. S. Stephens, District 11 engineer of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, asking emergency help in repaving Midland Ave. to the Beaver Creek bridge because the area is now receiving very heavy truck and bus traffic. Copies of the letter will be sent Sen. Ernest Kline and Rep. Robert O. Davis.

Councilman Ray Presutti congratulated the Beaver County commissioners on their quick work in obtaining emergency paving and filling of potholes on the Beaver Creek Bridge.

IT WAS announced that the Department of Justice, Bureau of Correction had conducted the first 1968 inspection of the Borough jail and had found it operated satisfactorily and is clean in accordance with regulations.

Councilmen were invited to attend a meeting of the Beaver County Planning Commission April 18 at 7:30 p. m. at the Beaver Campus of Pennsylvania State University. A report will be given on a soil survey in Beaver County by Dr. Milford Helsing.

Bills paid totaled $12,779, including $5,002 for Workmen's Compensation Insurance on borough employes. Council will meet April 24 at 8 p. m.

filed two days beyond the statutory 30-day limit.

Thomas H. Hisrich of the attorney general's office spoke on behalf of Highway Director P. E. Masheter and asked that the cause be dismissed.

Charles J. Gause, county commissioners' president, said Hisrich advised him that Kimball "will be up to negotiate."

A bridge to carry the superhighway over Rd. 880 was what Columbiana and Leetonia area residents urged Jan. 29 at the Courthouse when the commissioners conducted a public hearing on the state's request for vacation.

Opponents to the vacation said Rd. 880 is used by Salem and Washingtonville residents working in Columbiana industries and to block the road with Route 11 would destroy the industrial potential of the area north of the railroad tracks. Several opponents said extension of Rd. 880 all the way west to Leetonia would make a more direct route than State Rt. 344 which connects Columbiana and Leetonia.

Highway Department representatives said the amount of traffic using 880 does not justify an expensive bridge.

Levi Kimball, deputy director of the highway department's division 11 at New Philadelphia, later told the commissioners a bridge would cost $315,000 — approximately $240,000 for the bridge itself and another $75,000 to improve 880 in the construction area.

At that meeting Feb. 15 in the commissioners' office, the commissioners told Kimball the county could take care of the work on 880 if the state would build the bridge.

Attending the hearing this morning were Commissioners Gause, James W. Boyd and R. Max Gard and Allan G. Chamberlin and Wilmer Swope, Fairfield Township trustees who led the opposition to the vacation. Richard Clark, assistant prosecuting attorney, represented the commissioners.

Celebrations Coincide This Year

Pilgrims Jam Jerusalem For Easter And Passover

JERUSALEM (AP) — Thousands of Christian and Jewish pilgrims thronged Jerusalem today for Easter and Passover, which coincide this year.

Visitors jammed hotels, private homes and pensions. The overflow bedded down in schools and monasteries.

The Christians came for the annual Way of the Cross procession, tracing Christ's path to Calvary on the first Good Friday, and to celebrate the Resurrection on Sunday. The Jews came to pray at the Wailing Wall before sundown, start of the week-long festival of Passover commemorating the Exodus from Egypt.

Hebrew historians claimed that this is the first Passover in 3,258 years that a Jewish army has been stationed on the Red Sea, over which the Israelites escaped from Egypt. Israel's army also was there during the 1956 Suez war but pulled out of the Sinai Desert before Passover began.

Jewish housewives and cooks were busy preparing the seder feasts which at sundown inaugurate Passover. Seders were prepared for army units from the Syrian Golan Heights to the Suez Canal, with the biggest in the Sinai Desert, near Mt. Sinai.

This Easter is the second Christian holiday to attract large foreign crowds to Jerusalem since Israel ended Jordanian control of most of the Christian holy places in the war last June. Israeli troops were on guard against any Arab attempt to embarrass the government with disruptive violence. The first such holiday, Christmas, also was heavily guarded and there was no trouble.

filed two days beyond the statutory 30-day limit.

Thomas H. Hisrich of the attorney general's office spoke on behalf of Highway Director P. E. Masheter and asked that the cause be dismissed.

Charles J. Gause, county commissioners' president, said Hisrich advised him that Kimball "will be up to negotiate."

A bridge to carry the superhighway over Rd. 880 was what Columbiana and Leetonia area residents urged Jan. 29 at the Courthouse when the commissioners conducted a public hearing on the state's request for vacation.

Opponents to the vacation said Rd. 880 is used by Salem and Washingtonville residents working in Columbiana industries and to block the road with Route 11 would destroy the industrial potential of the area north of the railroad tracks. Several opponents said extension of Rd. 880 all the way west to Leetonia would make a more direct route than State Rt. 344 which connects Columbiana and Leetonia.

Highway Department representatives said the amount of traffic using 880 does not justify an expensive bridge.

Levi Kimball, deputy director of the highway department's division 11 at New Philadelphia, later told the commissioners a bridge would cost $315,000 — approximately $240,000 for the bridge itself and another $75,000 to improve 880 in the construction area.

At that meeting Feb. 15 in the commissioners' office, the commissioners told Kimball the county could take care of the work on 880 if the state would build the bridge.

Attending the hearing this morning were Commissioners Gause, James W. Boyd and R. Max Gard and Allan G. Chamberlin and Wilmer Swope, Fairfield Township trustees who led the opposition to the vacation. Richard Clark, assistant prosecuting attorney, represented the commissioners.

Celebrations Coincide This Year

Pilgrims Jam Jerusalem For Easter And Passover

JERUSALEM (AP) — Thousands of Christian and Jewish pilgrims thronged Jerusalem today for Easter and Passover, which coincide this year.

Visitors jammed hotels, private homes and pensions. The overflow bedded down in schools and monasteries.

The Christians came for the annual Way of the Cross procession, tracing Christ's path to Calvary on the first Good Friday, and to celebrate the Resurrection on Sunday. The Jews came to pray at the Wailing Wall before sundown, start of the week-long festival of Passover commemorating the Exodus from Egypt.

Hebrew historians claimed that this is the first Passover in 3,258 years that a Jewish army has been stationed on the Red Sea, over which the Israelites escaped from Egypt. Israel's army also was there during the 1956 Suez war but pulled out of the Sinai Desert before Passover began.

This Easter is the second Christian holiday to attract large foreign crowds to Jerusalem since Israel ended Jordanian control of most of the Christian holy places in the war last June. Israeli troops were on guard against any Arab attempt to embarrass the government with disruptive violence. The first such holiday, Christmas, also was heavily guarded and there was no trouble.

Moose Auxiliary Helps With Camp

Women of Moose Chapter 642, auxiliary to the Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 122, are contributing to the fourth annual Ohio Moose Association summer camping activities campaign for handicapped adults.

Camp Pittenger, near Tiffin, becomes Camp Easter Seal for Adults, the last week in August of each year as the association provides funds for the outdoor program. Many of the handicapped attend the outing in wheelchairs.

Mrs. Ruth Green, senior regent of the local unit, said when possible, the camper pays a fee of $35, about one-half the cost of the camp week, including the services of trained directors and counselors. The balance is underwritten by the Moose lodges and women's chapters. Campers who receive total disability pensions, or are unable to pay, attend as guests of the sponsors.

Physically or neurologically handicapped adults resulting from cerebral palsy, polio, muscular dystrophy, arthritis, birth defects, bone malfunctions and other crippling conditions may apply for attendance. Campers must be 21 or older and a state resident.

The camp is co-sponsored by the Ohio Society for Crippled Children and Adults, providing direction, administration and referral information to the applicants.

2 Post Bonds In Tax Charge

Two Northern Panhandle men charged with income tax evasion posted bonds of $5,000 pending action by a federal grand jury.

One of the pair, Charles F. Teemer, of Hancock County, formerly was associated with the Club 80 and Jockey Club near Chester and was acquitted by a federal jury of traveling interstate to promote gambling in 1962.

The other is Brooke County osteopath Donald G. Willis, awaiting trial in connection with the alleged abortion death of a Warwood woman in 1965.

Teemer, the government alleges, listed his income for 1961 as $122,064.02 when it should have been $150,064.02 and paid $70,220.43 in income taxes when he should have paid $90,013.68. The complaint by the government did not list the source of Teemer's earnings.

In the Willis case, the government contends the osteopath paid a tax of $1,286.13 on his income of 1961 when it should have been $2,342.50.

Willis is scheduled to go on trial April 29 in Ohio County Intermediate Court at Wheeling on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Mrs. Evelyn Sherman, of Warwood.

Son Of Ex-Residents Has Class Play Lead

Danny Allen Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfe of Hayward, Calif., formerly of East Liverpool, had the lead in Hayward High School's senior play "The Fantasticks" April 4-5. He sang three musical numbers.

The 17-year-old senior, who plans to study law upon graduation, plays the guitar, sings with a combo outfit and has made appearances with "The Choraliers."

The family left here in 1962 to make their home in California, where Mr. Wolfe is teacher and athletic director at Hayward. Danny's paternal grandmother is Mrs. Ruth Wolfe of Hayward. He is the grandson of the late Mayor and Mrs. Lee Copenhaver.

Flash Promises To Aid Jobless At Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—In the wake of racial disturbances, Youngstown Mayor Anthony B. Flask met with Negro leaders Thursday and pledged City Hall support to aid the unemployed.

Flask said the lines of communications between City Hall, the police and troubled neighborhoods would be improved. Negro spokesmen said they would campaign against violence in the troubled areas.

The mayor said the administration would form a job council with local industries and the Ohio Bureau of Employment Services to aid those out of work.

Police reported things "back to normal" after three nights of racial disorders. About 600 National Guardsmen are still on duty but Flask said the number may be reduced soon.

Developments would dictate when, the mayor added.

A general curfew was lifted Thursday and a ban on liquor sales in Youngstown and Mahoning County ended. Flask said, however, that those under 18 had to be off the streets by 11 p.m.

William Grady, 54, a policeman shot when the disturbances started Monday, was reported in poor condition at South Side Hospital.

Schedule Listed

2 Post Bonds In Tax Charge

Two Northern Panhandle men charged with income tax evasion have posted bonds of $5,000 pending action by a federal grand jury.

One of the pair, Charles F. Teemer, of Hancock County, formerly was associated with the Club 30 and Jockey Club near Chester and was acquitted by a federal jury of traveling interstate to promote gambling in 1963.

The other is Brooke County osteopath Donald G. Willis, awaiting trial in connection with the alleged abortion death of a Warwood woman in 1965.

Teemer, the government alleges, listed his income for 1961 as $122,064.02 when it should have been $150,064.02 and paid $70,350.43 in income taxes when he should have paid $90,013.68. The complaint by the government did not list the source of Teemer's earnings.

In the Willis case, the government contends the osteopath paid a tax of $1,286.13 on his income of 1961 when it should have been $2,342.50.

Willis is scheduled to go on tial April 29 in Ohio County Intermediate Court at Wheeling on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Mrs. Evelyn Sherman, of Warwood.

Son Of Ex-Residents Has Class Play Lead

Danny Allen Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfe of Hayward, Calif., formerly of East Liverpool, had the lead in Hayward High School's senior play "The Fantasticks" April 4-5. He sang three musical numbers.

The 17-year-old senior, who plans to study law upon graduation, plays the guitar, sings with a combo outfit and has made appearances with "The Choraliers."

The family left here in 1962 to make their home in California, where Mr. Wolfe is teacher and athletic director at Hayward. Danny's paternal grandmother is Mrs. Ruth Wolfe of Hayward. He is the grandson of the late Mayor and Mrs. Lee Copenhaver.

Flash Promises To Aid Jobless At Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—In the wake of racial disturbances, Youngstown Mayor Anthony B. Flask met with Negro leaders Thursday and pledged City Hall support to aid the unemployed.

Flask said the lines of communications between City Hall, the police and troubled neighborhoods would be improved. Negro spokesmen said they would campaign against violence in the troubled areas.

The mayor said the administration would form a job council with local industries and the Ohio Bureau of Employment Services to aid those out of work.

Police reported things "back to normal" after three nights of racial disorders. About 600 National Guardsmen are still on duty but Flask said the number may be reduced soon.

Developments would dictate when, the mayor added.

A general curfew was lifted Thursday and a ban on liquor sales in Youngstown and Mahoning County ended. Flask said, however, that those under 18 had to be off the streets by 11 p.m.

William Grady, 54, a policeman shot when the disturbances started Monday, was reported in poor condition at South Side Hospital.

Schedule Listed

The Midland Hi-Spot Youth Center has curtailed regular sessions during both Lenten season, according to Mrs William Spisak, director. The Center will reopen April 26 from 8:30 - 11:30 p. m. A regular session also will be held May 3. At the session May 10 following the high school choral concert, the Center will honor Mr. and Mrs. C. Lloyd Deffenbaugh, the choirs, and the organ students.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

A 'Must' For Mustard

DEAR HELOISE: I found an excellent way to serve mustard and I can put the jar right on the table when we have hot dogs for lunch.

Heloise

I punch a hole in the side of the lid with an ice pick. Then cut off part of the long stem of a plunger such as comes on a bottle of hand lotion. The stem fitted into the jar through the hole I had made in the cover and did not quite reach the bot- of the jar.

I now have a marvelous dispenser for mustard, and don't have to bother about the lid anymore.

MRS. ALBERT LEVESQUE.

P.S. I did the same thing to the ketchup bottle.

Lad of Goshen!

I just took my ice pick, punched a hole in the cap of the mustard bottle, enlarged the hole a bit more with my old kitchen shears, stuck in a cut-off finger plunger and . . . . hoped.

Whew! It works beautifully.

Don't despaire if you don't get mustard or catsup the first time you plunge it. Takes about three squirts to get it started.

Then it's a whing-dilly.

I sure do love you Mrs. Levesque.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: My one-piece uniforms sometimes sag. The belt seems to stretch.

I bought elastic a little narrower than the set-in belt and the length of my waist measurement. Ran it through the belt and stitched it in place. Now it fits snug and no more sagging.

DOROTHY DOUGHTY.

DEAR FOLKS: Remember when we asked how to solve the problem of a soggy crust when making custard pie? Well, you all sent in so many helpful letters, and it seems that most of you solve it in one of two ways.

Many wrote to use a pastry brush and paint the crust with a slightly beaten egg white before cooking. It seems the egg white glazes the top of the crust and keeps the custard from making it soggy.

Another very popular way was to use the "slip-slide" method. That means to bake the crust and the custard separately, using two pie pans the same size.

Bake crust in one pan. Lightly grease the other, pour the custard in it and bake. When both are done and have cooled, gently shake the pie pan with the custard in it, then slide the custard into the pie shell.

Results . . . no soggy crust!

I baked two pies this week, trying both of these methods and had good results with both.

So, gals, go bake yourself one of those good, old-fashioned custard pies. Ummmm they're mighty good!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When I decorate hard-boiled eggs for my children at Easter, I find they are much more attractive if I use felt-tipped pens instead of dyes or transfers.

It's a much faster method and less messy than using various dyes and cups.

MRS. GLORIA MITCHELL.

-:-

Even names of the children and messages to folks can be written on them. It's great.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: You spend your whole life working for IT. And when you reach the golden years you decide, and finally find out, that IT wasn't what you wanted after all. . . .

WIDOWER.

DEAR HELOISE: During spring showers, finding a place for all those dripping umbrellas can become quite a problem.

I put a large, old boot at the door to serve as an umbrella stand and it has proved quite successful.

Strike-Bound Hotel In Pittsburgh Sold

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The strike-bound Penn-Sheraton Hotel has been sold tentatively.

Mayor Joseph M. Barr said Wednesday an unidentified New York real estate firm has bought the building, but made no commitment to run it as a hotel.

He said the terms of the sale gave the Sheraton Corp. time to negotiate another deal with prospective buyers who would continue to operate it as a hotel.

The hotel, largest in the state, has been closed since October by a strike of service employes.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Producer Demands Equal TV Morals

Producer Roy Huggins accuses the TV networks of operating under a double standard when it comes to a moral code.

Hal Humphrey

"I'm producing in conjunction with Universal Studios three movies for TV now, and I can't do things in these movies which the networks allow to be shown in the old theatrical movies they've bought," Huggins claims.

"The public no longer is offended by the use of words like 'hell' or 'damn,' but I can't have my characters use them in a movie made for TV. Yet," adds Huggins, "the networks don't blip such words out of old movies.

-:-

"I HAD TO FIGHT one network recently to leave a line of dialog which read, 'Is that what they taught you at Harvard Law School?' Now they wouldn't have thought anything of it in an old movie, but the censor thought it should come out of my picture for fear of offending someone at Harvard or maybe all the alumni — I don't know."

Whenever Huggins brings such matters to the attention of the netwrk continuity bosses and flatly demands to know how they justify this double standard, their answer is, "We don't have any control over the producers who made the theatrical movies."

"But you buy them and put them on TV, then tell me I can't use some of the same dialog or situations," Huggins will protest.

-:-

"WE,,, WE CAN'T help that. We can control what you do, but we feel we're not responsible for what they do," comes the reply.

"In other words, you are saying to me that it's all right to be a fence as long as you don't steal the stuff yourself," is Huggins' riposte.

This kind of dialog gets him nowhere, however, and he is in the network continuity offices beefing all over again the following week about something or other the blue pencil boys have deleted.

"I can't even use the line, 'That's the God's truth.' Apparently the networks work on the theory that God is easily offended," says Huggins, bitterly.

-:-

NBC TELECAST "Never on Sunday," the Greek-made picture starring Melina Mercouri as the happy-go-lucky prostitute, last October and has bought the raucous and ribald "Tom Jones" for airing next season.

"And you watch," adds Huggins, "a movie like 'The Graduate' will be on TV one of these days, but if I brought a script like that to any of the networks for an okay, they'd decide I was out of my mind."

The unfair competition resulting from this network double standard goes to regular TV series, too, Huggins points out. He is executive producer of "Run for Your Life," which recently had an episode subtitled "The Dead on Furlough."

-:-

IT WAS a war picture about Israel. But on ABC there was an old movie titled "Hot Rods to Hell," which outpointed "Run for Your Life."

"And why not?" says Huggins. "'Hot Rods to Hell' has got to sound more exciting than 'The Dead on Furlough,' but I'd never be able to use a title like 'Hell on the Desert,' which I'd have liked to do."

This attitude of the networks makes them schizoid on several topics. For example, Huggins points out, the TV code says suicide is never to be depicted as the solution to a problem, nor is divorce.

Yet Huggins recalls an old MGM movie in which 12 people were murdered, and it ran on TV, "and to me this is obscene, especially since it was done with comic overtones," he says.

-:-

THOSE RULES on suicide and divorce for TV shows (not old movies) are a violation of the truth of our society, Huggins emphasizes. "Why should TV bury its head and ignore the fact that marriage is not perfect?" he wants to know.

Huggins' arguments seem fair enough, and the ratings this season seem to bear him out, too, because old movies on TV frequently have outpointed shows made for TV which are opposite them on the networks. The viewers may have discovered, also, that TV is operating on a double standard of morals.

Reorganizing Launched By Action Group

The Northern West Virginia Community Action Association, which serves Hancock and four other counties, is now in the process of reorganizing in compliance with the 1967 amendments to the Economic Opportunity Act.

In announcing the action, Ronald E. Wilson, area administrator with headquarters at Wheeling, pointed out "that if a private group or interest feel they want to participate on the governing board, now is the time to make this decision known to the existing Board of Directors."

May 15 is the deadline for the compliance of the new composition standards, Wilson said.

Stephen A. Cocumelli is associate director of the association.

The purpose of the organization is to provide a focal point for anti - poverty efforts within Hancock and the other counties involved.

Under the bylaws, the annual meeting of members is to be held on the first Wednesday in June of each year. The Board of Directors is to meet monthly.

Firemen's Auxiliary Plans Doughnut Sale

A doughnut sale was planned for later in the month when the Auxiliary of the volunteer firemen met Tuesday night in the station at Wellsville.

Mrs. Joyce Elliott, president, named committees for the year. Material was purchased to make approns for use at the firemen's carnival.

Purchase of a heavy duty mixer was discussed, with Mrs. Natalie Lewis and Mrs. Shirley Lanam appointed to a committee in charge.

The Auxiliary prepared lunch for the firemen who burned down an old house on Broadway March 30 in a training session.

Lunch was served 10 by Mrs. Becky Russell and Mrs. Ruth Steepleton. The next meeting will be May 14.

DEAR HELOISE: You spend your whole life working for IT. And when you reach the golden years you decide, and finally find out, that IT wasn't what you wanted after all. . . .

WIDOWER.

DEAR HELOISE: During spring showers, finding a place for all those dripping umbrellas can become quite a problem.

I put a large, old boot at the door to serve as an umbrella stand and it has proved quite successful.

Strike-Bound Hotel In Pittsburgh Sold

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The strike-bound Penn-Sheraton Hotel has been sold tentatively.

Mayor Joseph M. Barr said Wednesday an unidentified New York real estate firm has bought the building, but made no commitment to run it as a hotel.

He said the terms of the sale gave the Sheraton Corp. time to negotiate another deal with prospective buyers who would continue to operate it as a hotel.

The hotel, largest in the state, has been closed since October by a strike of service employes.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Producer Demands Equal TV Morals

Producer Roy Huggins accuses the TV networks of operating under a double standard when it comes to a moral code.

Hal Humphrey

"I'm producing in conjunction with Universal Studios three movies for TV now, and I can't do things in these movies which the networks allow to be shown in the old theatrical movies they've bought," Huggins claims.

"The public no longer is offended by the use of words like 'hell' or 'damn,' but I can't have my characters use them in a movie made for TV. Yet," adds Huggins, "the networks don't blip such words out of old movies.

-:-

"I HAD TO FIGHT one network recently to leave a line of dialog which read, 'Is that what they taught you at Harvard Law School?' Now they wouldn't have thought anything of it in an old movie, but the censor thought it should come out of my picture for fear of offending someone at Harvard or maybe all the alumni — I don't know."

Whenever Huggins brings such matters to the attention of the netwrk continuity bosses and flatly demands to know how they justify this double standard, their answer is, "We don't have any control over the producers who made the theatrical movies."

"But you buy them and put them on TV, then tell me I can't use some of the same dialog or situations," Huggins will protest.

-:-

"WE,,, WE CAN'T help that. We can control what you do, but we feel we're not responsible for what they do," comes the reply.

"In other words, you are saying to me that it's all right to be a fence as long as you don't steal the stuff yourself," is Huggins' riposte.

This kind of dialog gets him nowhere, however, and he is in the network continuity offices beefing all over again the following week about something or other the blue pencil boys have deleted.

"I can't even use the line, That's the God's truth.' Apparently the networks work on the theory that God is easily offended," says Huggins, bitterly.

-:-

NBC TELECAST "Never on Sunday," the Greek-made picture starring Melina Mercouri as the happy-go-lucky prostitute, last October and has bought the raucous and ribald "Tom Jones" for airing next season.

"And you watch," adds Huggins, "a movie like 'The Graduate' will be on TV one of these days, but if I brought a script like that to any of the networks for an okay, they'd decide I was out of my mind."

The unfair competition resulting from this network double standard goes to regular TV series, too, Huggins points out. He is executive producer of "Run for Your Life," which recently had an episode subtitled "The Dead on Furlough."

-:-

IT WAS a war picture about Israel. But on ABC there was an old movie titled "Hot Rods to Hell," which outpointed "Run for Your Life."

"And why not?" says Huggins. "'Hot Rods to Hell' has got to sound more exciting than 'The Dead on Furlough,' but I'd never be able to use a title like 'Hell on the Desert,' which I'd have liked to do."

This attitude of the networks makes them schizoid on several topics. For example, Huggins points out, the TV code says suicide is never to be depicted as the solution to a problem, nor is divorce.

Yet Huggins recalls an old MGM movie in which 12 people were murdered, and it ran on TV, "and to me this is obscene, especially since it was done with comic overtones," he says.

-:-

THOSE RULES on suicide and divorce for TV shows (not old movies) are a violation of the truth of our society, Huggins emphasizes. "Why should TV bury its head and ignore the fact that marriage is not perfect?" he wants to know.

Huggins' arguments seem fair enough, and the ratings this season seem to bear him out, too, because old movies on TV frequently have outpointed shows made for TV which are opposite them on the networks. The viewers may have discovered, also, that TV is operating on a double standard of morals.

Reorganizing Launched By Action Group

The Northern West Virginia Community Action Association, which serves Hancock and four other counties, is now in the process of reorganizing in compliance with the 1967 amendments to the Economic Opportunity Act.

In announcing the action, Ronald E. Wilson, area administrator with headquarters at Wheeling, pointed out "that if a private group or interest feel they want to participate on the governing board, now is the time to make this decision known to the existing Board of Directors."

May 15 is the deadline for the compliance of the new composition standards, Wilson said.

Stephen A. Cocumelli is associate director of the association.

The purpose of the organization is to provide a focal point for anti - poverty efforts within Hancock and the other counties involved.

Under the bylaws, the annual meeting of members is to be held on the first Wednesday in June of each year. The Board of Directors is to meet monthly.

Kennedy Takes His Campaign To West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy comes to West Virginia tonight to start a short presidential campaign swing through Southern coalfield counties where his late brother rolled up his biggest majorities in a historic Democratic primary eight years ago.

Eight appearances are on the New York senator's weekend schedule — one tonight at Beckley and seven along the route of a Saturday motor caravan tour.

They are all places that were visited by John F. Kennedy, in some cases two and three times, in his 1960 presidential primary campaign against Hubert H. Humphrey.

Unlike the 1960 primary, the May 14 West Virginia voting will have no presidential candidates entered personally. However, convention delegates will be at stake.

Thirty - six of West Virginia's 38 delegates to the Democratic National Convention will be elected May 14. West Virginia supporters of the party's only announced presidential contenders to date — Kennedy and Minnesota Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy —currently are lining up rival slates of delegate candidates.

Weather permitting, all of the appearances on Kennedy's motor caravan tour Saturday will be outdoors except the windup in Charleston. His state campaign manager, William P. "Pete" Thaw, announced the following Saturday schedule:

Princeton, 8 a.m., Mercer County courthouse.

Keystone, 9 a.m., Downtown Welch, 10 a. m. Municipal parking building.

Pineville, 11:30 a.m. Wyoming County courthouse.

Logan, 2:30 p.m., Logan County courthouse.

Madison, 4 p. m., Boone County courthouse.

Charleston, 8:30 p.m., Municipal Auditorium.

Kennedy Takes His Campaign To West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy comes to West Virginia tonight to start a short presidential campaign swing through Southern coalfield counties where his late brother rolled up his biggest majorities in a historic Democratic primary eight years ago.

Eight appearances are on the New York senator's weekend schedule — one tonight at Beckley and seven along the route of a Saturday motor caravan tour.

They are all places that were visited by John F. Kennedy, in some cases two and three times, in his 1960 presidential primary campaign against Hubert H. Humphrey.

Unlike the 1960 primary, the May 14 West Virginia voting will have no presidential candidates entered personally. However, convention delegates will be at stake.

Thirty - six of West Virginia's 38 delegates to the Democratic National Convention will be elected May 14. West Virginia supporters of the party's only announced presidential contenders to date — Kennedy and Minnesota Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy —currently are lining up rival slates of delegate candidates.

Weather permitting, all of the appearances on Kennedy's motor caravan tour Saturday will be outdoors except the windup in Charleston. His state campaign manager, William P. "Pete" Thaw, announced the following Saturday schedule:

Princeton, 8 a.m., Mercer County courthouse.

Keystone, 9 a.m., Downtown

Welch, 10 a. m. Municipal parking building.

Pineville, 11:30 a.m. Wyoming County courthouse.

Logan, 2:30 p.m., Logan County courthouse.

Madison, 4 p. m., Boone County courthouse.

Charleston, 8:30 p.m., Muncipal Auditorium.

Dirty Gift Holds Hazard

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I'd like to comment on Marvyn, the young man who won a trip to London in a sales contest. His girl wrote that she was disappointed when he returned and handed her his "gift" — a clump of dirt from London.

Your comment that the gift was "dirt cheap — and something a person could pick up at the last minute," was not only inadequate but incorrect. Such a gift could wind up being mighty expensive — for all of us. Even a handful of English soil could bring into this country foot-and-mouth disease or golden nematode, which is a serious pest of potatoes.

Morever, Marvyn broke the law. Untreated soil from any place outside North America is prohibited by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Marvyn should have declared the soil to the U.S. Customs authorities. He had done so, the soil could have been treated to eliminate all plant pests and animal diseases.

Please print this letter for the education of others. Thank You. —C.A.L.

-:-

Dear C.A.L.: Like I said, Marvyn, you should have gone into one of those lovely English shops and bought the girl a little something. Now maybe you brought her more than you had planned on — like foot-and-mouth disease. Have you seen her lately? How's she feeling?

Glass Curtain

Dear Ann: After reading your suggestion for cooling anger (squeeze an egg in the palm of your hand — the less said about that one the better) it occurred to me that I should share my secret solution for fighting between kids.

When our two boys reached the boiling point we'd hand them each a rag and some window cleaner and tell them to go wash the opposite sides of the same window. They had orders to stay with it until the anger disappeared.

This way the boys were able to spar off without touching each other because neither would risk breaking the glass. Eventually their eyes HAD to meet and they would end up laughing.

We never had a broken pane or a broken nose and we probably had the cleanest windows in town.—CALIFORNIA WOMEN'S EDITOR.

-:-

Dear C.W.E.: Thank you for an excellent suggestion. I endorse it, whole heartedly, for people who have ranch-style homes, that is — but not for folks who live in a high-rise apartments. Think of something else, please.

Topless Collegian

Dear Ann: I'm a junior in college, male, and in need of advice.

Several months ago I had some serious emotional problems that resulted in the loss of my hair. My hair began to fall out in patches and then all of a sudden every remaining hair fell out of my head and I was left totally bald.

I've been seeing a doctor and he tells me my hair may grow back and it may not. We must wait and see.

In the meantime, I had a toupee made and it looks pretty good. The problem is that some of the kids think I'm wearing the hairpiece because I'm vain and wish to conceal partial baldness. They don't realize that under that toupee is a hairless head.

Should I mention this to some of the girls who look at me in an odd way?—UNCOMFORTABLE.

-:-

Dear U: If your story is true and I have no reason to believe it is not — a few people on the campus must know it and you can be sure they'll have passed the word. You don't owe anyone an explanation or an apology for wearing a hairpiece.

Keep the details to yourself.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Group Will Hold Buffet Luncheon

Mrs. Eileen Bailey, director of the National Retired Teachers Association, will be guest speaker when the Hancock County Association of Retired School Employes holds a buffet luncheon May 22 at 1 p.m. at the Holiday Inn at Waterford Park.

Plans for the event were completed at this week's meeting.

Ernest John of Chester, president, said all retired school employes of the county are invited to attend. Reservations must be made with Lester Lutton of 514 Indiana Ave., Chester, by May 15.

John Manual, a representative of the office at Steubenville, explained changes in Social Security and Medicare as a result of the Social Security amendment of 1967 at this week's meeting.

NFO To Keep Shooting And Burying Hogs

BELLEFONTAINE, Ohio (AP)—Members of the National Farmers Organization plan to stick to their guns and keep on shooting and burying hogs in efforts to increase farm-to-market pork prices.

"It looks like there's going to be more and more hog shoots," says John Shoots, a Bellefontaine area farmer on whose farm about 550 hogs were destroyed Thursday.

The decision to continue the withholding action came Thursday night when about 300 local farmers learned through a national NFO report that major packers were refusing to meet their price demands.

"The big packers haven't yielded yet," Shoots said, commenting on the report.

Tentatively, according to Shoots, more hogs probably will be slaughtered sometime next week at a location in the Columbus adea.

Shoots himself is a dairy man and does not raise hogs, although he is active in the NFO and took part in last year's milk withholding action.

Hogs were trucked into Shoots' farm from several counties Thursday.

The animals were shot in a 50-yard-long trench and their throats cut before being buried.

The number, however, was a little below the figure that the NFO had anticipated.

The NFO had set a midnight Wednesday deadline for packers to slaughter the hogs free for distribution to the poor as was done last week in Northern Ohio. But nothing materialized.

The polka is of Bohemian origin, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Club To Back Bond Issue

The Calcutta School Mothers Club endorsed the bond issue to be voted on at the May election when the group met Wednesday afternoon at the multi-purpose room at the school. Mrs. Jean Madison presided.

Roy Cashdollar, superintendent of the Beaver Local School District, discussed the bond issue..

Mrs. Peggy Barker, ways and means chairman, reported that $9 was realized from the recent bake sale. The club decided on a number of items needed by the instructors, including staple guns for each room, plastic numbed cards for the first grade and felt numbers for the upper grades.

The members will clean and repair the drapes in the multi-purpose room.

Mrs. Lottie Sakriba of Beaver Falls demonstrated the decoration of eggs and also presented a display.

The meeting opened with the salute to the flag, which was presented to the school by Glenmoor American Legion Post 736.

Officers will be elected May 8.

Wellsville Jaycees Will Help Band Parents; Await Dinner

Wellsville Jaycees voted to turn over a refreshment concession to the Band Parents and made final preparations for the "Bosses Night" banquet during a meeting Wednesday.

The Jaycees agreed to give up the concession after receiving a request from the Band Parents at the March 20 meeting for help in liquidating a $5,000 debt incurred with the recent purchase of band uniforms.

A policy recently adopted by the Wellsville Board of Education curbs solicitation of local businesses and residents and, therefore, has cut off a major source of revenue for the organization.

—:—

RALPH FUSCO reported all arrangements have been made for the banquet Monday at 6:30 in the SOI Hall on 3rd St.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays of the 18th Congressional District will be guest speaker at the 11th annual event.

Also on the agenda is the presentation of awards to three residents who have "made outstanding contributions toward the betterment of the community during the past year."

They are the Civic Service Award to a person over 35, the Distinguished Service Award to a person under 35 and a Youth Fitness Award.

In other business, the Jaycees voted to discontinue the Saturday night dances during summer vacation.

Fusco, state representative, reported on the all-state meeting at Cincinnati which he and Mike Cook attended. Dick Divina, a member of Region 8, is running for state president, Fusco pointed out.

Fusco announced the July all-state meeting will be held in Cleveland and said plans are being made to accommodate any member who wishes to attend. An effort is also being made to permit wives also to attend, he added.

The Region 8 meeting will be held in Alliance April 19 and the next all-state event will be in Toledo May 16-19. The national convention will be at Phoenix, Ariz., June 20.

—:—

FRED HOFF of Columbiana reported the Jaycees there will host a District 20 meeting April 27 at the IBOP hall on Route 7. Hoff said the agenda will include a meeting from 8 to 9 at which awards will be presented, a social session from 9 to 9:30 and a dance until 12:30 a.m.

Bill Telzrow, Wellsville president, reminded members that 1968 dues are due.

William R. Croskey of 327 Ridge Ave. and John R. Sawyer of 921 Main St. were enrolled as new members.

The annual scholastic awards dinner will be held May 20, Telzrow announced. Awards, plaques and trophies will be presented to Wellsville High School students who have attained a 3.75 average for the school year, Robert Wescott, chairman, said.

The Inaugural Ball will be held during the first part of June, Telzrow reported. Nominations will be made during the meeting May 20.

Fusco pointed out that names of those not selected by the nominating committee may be placed on the ballot if a petition signed by 10 members is presented to the president.

2 More To Join Candidate Talks

John C. Moore, Republican, and Mickey Mallas, Democrat, candidates for sheriff in Hancock County, will be among those taking part in a public meeting April 23 at Chester to enable residents to become better acquainted with the various candidates and their viewpoints on pertinent issues.

Others who have announced they will be on hand include Jack Evans, New Cumberland Democrat; Harold L. Miller, Chester Republican, and Robert Wright, Weirton Democrat, the Rev. Donald Bell of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church and chairman of the meeting, said.

The Rev. Randall Prince of the Chester First Methodist Church will act as moderator.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m. in the City Hall. It is being sponsored by the Chester Ministerial Association.

Wellsville Jaycees voted to turn over a refreshment concession to the Band Parents and made final preparations for the "Bosses Night" banquet during a meeting Wednesday.

The Jaycees agreed to give up the concession after receiving a request from the Band Parents at the March 20 meeting for help in liquidating a $5,000 debt incurred with the recent purchase of band uniforms.

A policy recently adopted by the Wellsville Board of Education curbs solicitation of local businesses and residents and, therefore, has cut off a major source of revenue for the organization.

—:—

RALPH FUSCO reported all arrangements have been made for the banquet Monday at 6:30 in the SOI Hall on 3rd St.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays of the 18th Congressional District will be guest speaker at the 11th annual event.

Also on the agenda is the presentation of awards to three residents who have "made outstanding contributions toward the betterment of the community during the past year."

They are the Civic Service Award to a person over 35, the Distinguished Service Award to a person under 35 and a Youth Fitness Award.

In other business, the Jaycees voted to discontinue the Saturday night dances during summer vacation.

Fusco, state representative, reported on the all-state meeting at Cincinnati which he and Mike Cook attended. Dick Divina, a member of Region 8, is running for state president, Fusco pointed out.

Fusco announced the July all-state meeting will be held in Cleveland and said plans are being made to accommodate any member who wishes to attend. An effort is also being made to permit wives also to attend, he added.

The Region 8 meeting will be held in Alliance April 19 and the next all-state event will be in Toledo May 16-19. The national convention will be at Phoenix, Ariz., June 20.

—:—

FRED HOFF of Columbiana reported the Jaycees there will host a District 20 meeting April 27 at the IBOP hall on Route 7. Hoff said the agenda will include a meeting from 8 to 9 at which awards will be presented, a social session from 9 to 9:30 and a dance until 12:30 a.m.

Bill Telzrow, Wellsville president, reminded members that 1968 dues are due.

William R. Croskey of 327 Ridge Ave. and John R. Sawyer of 921 Main St. were enrolled as new members.

The annual scholastic awards dinner will be held May 20, Telzrow announced. Awards, plaques and trophies will be presented to Wellsville High School students who have attained a 3.75 average for the school year, Robert Wescott, chairman, said.

The Inaugural Ball will be held during the first part of June, Telzrow reported. Nominations will be made during the meeting May 20.

Fusco pointed out that names of those not selected by the nominating committee may be placed on the ballot if a petition signed by 10 members is presented to the president.

2 More To Join Candidate Talks

John C. Moore, Republican, and Mickey Mallas, Democrat, candidates for sheriff in Hancock County, will be among those taking part in a public meeting April 23 at Chester to enable residents to become better acquainted with the various candidates and their viewpoints on pertinent issues.

Others who have announced they will be on hand include Jack Evans, New Cumberland Democrat; Harold L. Miller, Chester Republican, and Robert Wright, Weirton Democrat, the Rev. Donald Bell of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church and chairman of the meeting, said.

The Rev. Randall Prince of the Chester First Methodist Church will act as moderator.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m. in the City Hall. It is being sponsored by the Chester Ministerial Association.

Earlier this week a column appeared on these pages by Murray Olderman, sports editor of Newspaper Enterprise Association, concerning the demise of baseball.

It was a good column, and Olderman had some good points, but I don't feel that baseball is quite dead yet. Opening day this year was overshadowed by the aftermath of the death of Dr. Martin Luther King, but still it is a thrill like few others. Baseball crowds hockey and basketball, now in what should be their climax stages, almost completely off the sports page. The opening of football is overshadowed by the baseball pennant races.

But Olderman is right. Baseball has lost something from the past, and usually loses something every year, as the greedy owners dilute the quality of the sport with new franchises and prey on the faith of the fans with fanchise shifts. This year the American League has allowed Charley Finley, probably the most selfish of all the owners, to take the Athletics from Kansas City to Oakland, leaving the people of Kansas City, who faithfully supported a poor team for 12 years, out in the cold.

I have been rooting for the A's since I was a small boy in Eastern Pennsylvania 20 years ago, but this latest wrench is too much and I've shifted my allegiance to the Detroit Tigers. I once read an article noting that people at large tend to root for Detroit teams, and it's certainly true in my case. The Tigers were always my favorite after the A's, the Lions are my favorite NFL Western Division team, and the Red Wings are my favorite NHL Eastern Division team. The Pistons don't count, as they are Johnny-come-latelys from Ft. Wayne. And I had never been to Detroit or known anyone from there until five years ago.

But even with its many flaws, baseball still has magic for many people that no other sport can generate.

RON WILLIAMS of West Virginia will play in the fourth annual North-South All-Star Cage Classic at Erie, Pa. on April 20. Larry Weise of St. Bonaventure will coach the North and Louisville's John Dromo the South.

LISBON'S DICK ROSE is a senior outfielder on the Mount Union College baseball team.

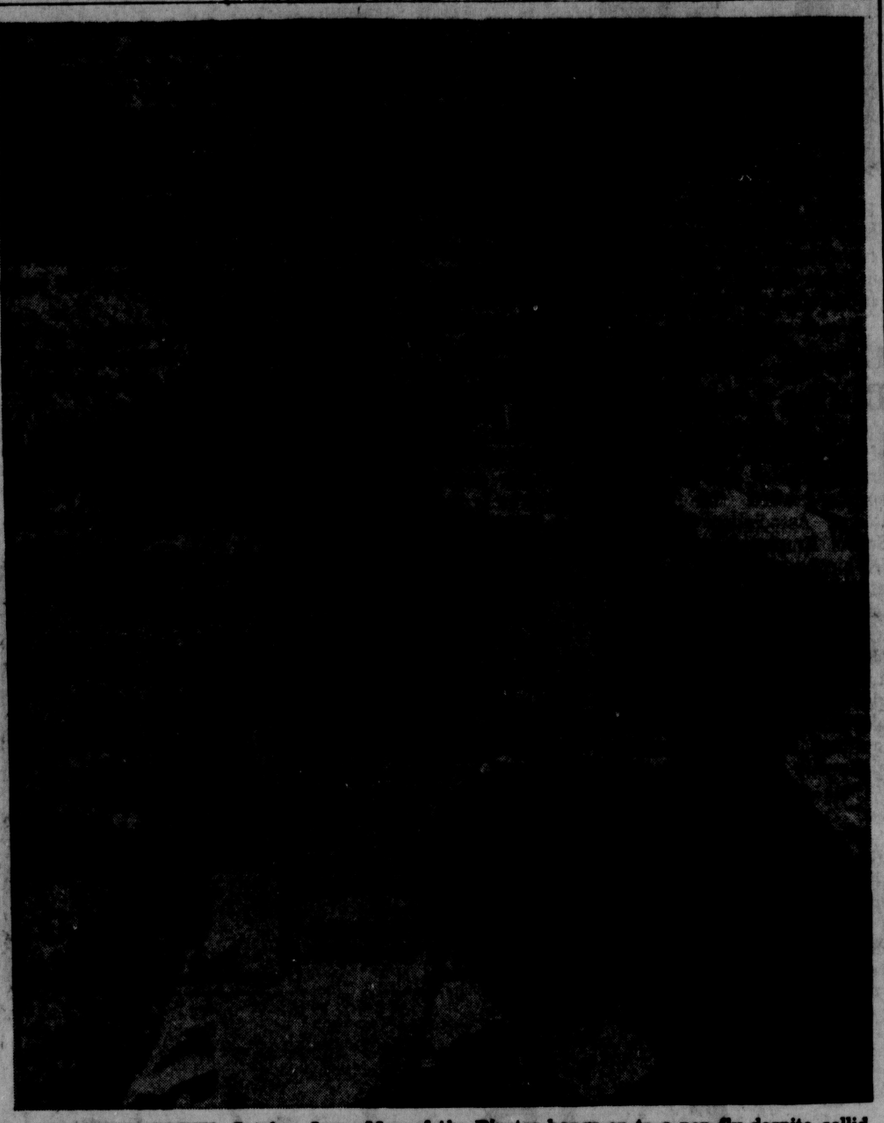

STEUBENVILLE'S Jerry Boswell is one of the standout performers on the Ohio U. track squad. Boswell won the Central Collegiate long jump last year with a 24-9½ leap and was second in the MAC triple jump with a 47-4 mark. Boswell is a senior. Another Bobcat thinclad from Steubenville is freshman Jerry Marshall, who was state runner-up in the 440-yard dash last year.

The premier performer for Ohio U., of course, is Emmett Taylor, the defending NCAA 440 champ. Taylor ran a :45.9 last year and is ranked sixth in the country, ninth in the world. He is also ranked 20th nationally in the 220 after ripping off a :20.9 effort last season.

STEUBENVILLE CENTRAL won that "exhibition" track meet Tuesday over East Liverpool 64-53.

BELLAIRE ST. JOHN'S Allen Hornyak, who averaged 43.2 points a game in basketball this season, does not confine his heroics to the court. He has already pitched two no-hitters this spring for the Fighting Irish.

EAST LIVERPOOL'S Bernie Allen got into the opening day game action with the Washington Senators as a pinch-hitter, going out against Dean Chance of the Twins.

Cards Cruise To 2nd Win

The St. Louis countdown has begun and it's only April.

The happy-go-lucky Cardinals, defending world champions, were chanting "a hundred more to go," after their second straight victory Thursday night had left them comfortably perched at the top of the National League.

A hundred more victories would give the Cards 102 for the season—one more than it took them to capture the pennant last year.

The Redbirds were understandably chipper Thursday night after an 18-hit attack led by Orlando Cepeda, Tim McCarver, Curt Flood and Mike Shannon had pounded Atlanta 10-3.

In other National League games, rookie Jerry Koosman pitched a four-hitter for his first major league victory as New York blanked Los Angeles 4-0, Pittsburgh pushed across two runs in the 15th inning to nip San Francisco 3-1, Houston dropped Philadelphia 7-3 and Chicago bumped Cincinnati 10-3.

Cepeda, who led the "hundred to go" chant, drove in four Cardinal runs with a homer, single and his first triple in four years. Twice his clutch hits came with two-strike counts on him.

McCarver had four hits, and Shannon and Flood three each as St. Louis battered three Atlanta pitchers. Deron Johnson accounted for all three Braves' runs with an eighth inning homer.

The Dodgers suffered their second straight shoutout, this time at the hands of the Mets. Koosman, a rookie left-hander, was in complete control and got all the offensive help he needed from Art Shamsky who drove in the first two runs of the game with a bases-loaded single in the sixth inning.

Dodger outfielder Al Ferrara suffered a fracture and dislocation of his left ankle when he fell down chasing Tommie Agee's eighth inning drive. Ferrara was carried off the field on a stretcher and taken to a hospital for X rays. He is expected to be sidlined for three months.

Norm Miller and Rusty Staub drove in two runs apiece as the Astros won their second straight, beating Larry Jackson, an old nemesis.

Jackson, who had beaten Houston 17 times, lasted only three innings. Don Wilson, backed by a 14-hit Astro attack, went the distance against the Phillies on a seven-hitter.

Maury Wills drove in Pittsburgh's winning runs in the 15th innng against the Giants. Nate Oliver's error, a sacrifice, an intentional walk and a hit batsman loaded the bases and set up Wills' winning hit.

Billy Williams rapped a pair of home runs leading a five-homer Chicago barrage that carried the Cubs past Cincinnati. The two homers gave Williams 200 for his career.

Ferguson Jenkins, who slammed one of the Cub homers, breezed to the victory.

Maury Wills' Hit Scores Two Runs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Larry Shepard is a big league manager now—and he's getting big league headaches right off the bat.

His Pittsburgh Pirates dropped the season opener at Houston by blowing a two-run lead in the ninth inning.

It was a different ending Thursday against the San Francisco Giants, but it was another tension-packed job as the Bucs struggled 15 innings before edging the Giants 3-1.

"They made mistakes they houldn't make," Shepard said of the opener. And he thinks Jim Bunning was trying too hard against the Astros. "Jim knows what is expected of him here," Shepard said. "I think he was trying to prove to his teammates that he can lead them. He was throwing hard, but he wasn't mixing up his pitches early in the game."

The Pirates showed some bounce in Thursday's game. But it was a gruelling 15 innings before Maury Wills landed a two-run single for the win.

It was Wills who drove in two runs in the ninth inning against the Astros to break a tie. That was before the Buc relievers blew it.

Bob Veale went 12 of the innings Thursday against San Francisco's Mike McCormick. Elroy Face came in for a two-inning relief job after Veale's magnificent performance at the mound.

Face kept the Giants from scoring in the 13th and 14th innings and Bob Moose hurled the final frame.

Mill Mazeroski was the first Pirate runner in the 15th and was safe on Nate Oliver's error. Manny Mota's bunt moved him to second and Frank Linzy, who relieved McCormick in the 13th, gave Matty Alou an intentional pass.

Bill Henry relieved and hit Manny Jiminez with a pitch, loading the bases. Wills singled through the left side, driving in Mazeroski and Alou.

Canadiens Eliminate Boston 3-2

The Montreal Canadiens don't have sharper skates than any other National Hockey League team. They just use them better.

"We got a team effort and we outskated them," Coach Toe Blake said after the Canadiens edged Boston 3-2 Thursday night to sweep their East Division Stanley Cup semifinal series in four straight games. "Very few of our guys were not skating."

Montreal's next opponent will be the winner of the New York-Chicago series. The Black Hawks fired five goals in the third period to beat the Rangers 7-4 and cut New York's lead to 2-1.

In West Division semifinal action, St. Louis whipped Philadelphia 5-2 to take a commanding 3-1 lead and Minnesota nipped Los Angeles 3-2 to square that set at two games apiece. All series are best-of-7.

Beaver Local suffered its first baseball defeat after two wins yesterday, getting trounced 14-1 at Steubenville.

Merritt Edges Nats

Killebrew's 2nd Homer Gives Twins 2nd Win

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Merritt was having trouble with his pivot and suddenly Minnesota Twins were in trouble. But there was nothing wrong with Harmon Killebrew's swing and suddenly the Twins were out of trouble.

Killebrew's second homer in as many days snapped a tie and gave the Twins a 5-4 victory over Washington Thursday night after a shaky start by Merritt allowed the Senators four runs in the first inning.

Minnesota pitching coach Early Wynn detected a hitch in the young left-hander's pivot when delivering the ball and quickly got him to correct the flaw. After that, Merritt allowed just two hits and waited for the Twins' hitters to catch up.

In the only other America League games Thursday, Detroit edged Boston 4-3 and California topped Cleveland 7-5.

The Twins started catching up to the Senators in the third inning when Ken McMullen's two-out throwing error opened the gates to three runs.

In the fifth, Frank Howard muffed a fly ball by Rod Carew for a two-base error and Carew eventually scored the tying run on a wild pitch. Then Killebrew sent one 381 feet into the left field bullpen in left center.

The Tigers beat the Red Sox on Gates Brown's pinch-hit homer in the ninth inning. Dick McAuliffe homered for Detroit in the first inning and Bill Freehan hit one out in the second, staking the Tigers to a 3-0 lead.

But in the sixth, Joe Lahoud, the rookie who is taking Tony Conigliaro's place in right field, and Rico Petrocelli tied the score at 3-3 with successive homers off Denny McLain and that's the way things stayed until Brown hit his homer.

Chuck Hinton's homer in the seventh tied the Angels with the Indians and Bob Rodgers followed with a single that drove in Roger Repoz with the winning run.

Sam McDowell, the Cleveland starter, hit Don Mincher in the face with a pitch in the third inning and the big Angel slugger was carried from the field in a stretcher. Five stitches were taken before he was sent to the hospital for observation.

Al Ferrera Breaks Ankle, Out 3 Months

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Six days ago, the Los Angeles Dodgers had high hopes of contending for the National League baseball championship. Now after only two games, things are so bad that they can only get better.

A sudden run of bad luck struck the Dodgers again Thursday night when left fielder Al Ferrara was sidelined for three months with a fracture and a dislocation of his left ankle. Loss of the big right-handed hitter further compounds the Dodgers' main weakness, a vulnerability against lefthanded pitching.

Southpaws Chris Short of Philadelphia and Jerry Koosman of the New York Mets have pitched four-hitters to shut out the Dodgers in each of the first two starts.

Short won 2-0 Wednesday night and Koosman won 4-0 Thursday night for his first major league victory.

Ferrara, 28, was the Dodger leader last year in average .277, and home runs, 16. His injury leaves the Dodgers with just five outfielders and only one of those, veteran Rocky Colavito, hits righthanded.

The Dodger run of bad luck began last Saturday. First Manager Walter Alston was hospitalized for the removal of two kidney stones and will be off from work for three to four weeks.

Merritt Edges Nats

Killebrew's 2nd Homer Gives Twins 2nd Win

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Merritt was having trouble with his pivot and suddenly Minnesota Twins were in trouble. But there was nothing wrong with Harmon Killebrew's swing and suddenly the Twins were out of trouble.

Killebrew's second homer in as many days snapped a tie and gave the Twins a 5-4 victory over Washington Thursday night after a shaky start by Merritt allowed the Senators four runs in the first inning.

Minnesota pitching coach Early Wynn detected a hitch in the young left-hander's pivot when delivering the ball and quickly got him to correct the flaw. After that, Merritt allowed just two hits and waited for the Twins' hitters to catch up.

In the only other America League games Thursday, Detroit edged Boston 4-3 and California topped Cleveland 7-5.

The Twins started catching up to the Senators in the third inning when Ken McMullen's two-out throwing error opened the gates to three runs.

In the fifth, Frank Howard muffed a fly ball by Rod Carew for a two-base error and Carew eventually scored the tying run on a wild pitch. Then Killebrew sent one 381 feet into the left field bullpen in left center.

The Tigers beat the Red Sox on Gates Brown's pinch-hit homer in the ninth inning. Dick McAuliffe homered for Detroit in the first inning and Bill Freehan hit one out in the second, staking the Tigers to a 3-0 lead.

But in the sixth, Joe Lahoud, the rookie who is taking Tony Conigliaro's place in right field, and Rico Petrocelli tied the score at 3-3 with successive homers off Denny McLain and that's the way things stayed until Brown hit his homer.

Chuck Hinton's homer in the seventh tied the Angels with the Indians and Bob Rodgers followed with a single that drove in Roger Repoz with the winning run.

Sam McDowell, the Cleveland starter, hit Don Mincher in the face with a pitch in the third inning and the big Angel slugger was carried from the field in a stretcher. Five stitches were taken before he was sent to the hospital for observation.

Al Ferrera Breaks Ankle, Out 3 Months

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Six days ago, the Los Angeles Dodgers had high hopes of contending for the National League baseball championship. Now after only two games, things are so bad that they can only get better.

A sudden run of bad luck struck the Dodgers again Thursday night when left fielder Al Ferrara was sidelined for three months with a fracture and a dislocation of his left ankle. Loss of the big right-handed hitter further compounds the Dodgers' main weakness, a vulnerability against lefthanded pitching.

Southpaws Chris Short of Philadelphia and Jerry Koosman of the New York Mets have pitched four-hitters to shut out the Dodgers in each of the first two starts.

Short won 2-0 Wednesday night and Koosman won 4-0 Thursday night for his first major league victory.

Ferrara, 28, was the Dodger leader last year in average .277, and home runs, 16. His injury leaves the Dodgers with just five outfielders and only one of those, veteran Rocky Colavito, hits righthanded.

The Dodger run of bad luck began last Saturday. First Manager Walter Alston was hospitalized for the removal of two kidney stones and will be off from work for three to four weeks.

Greer Leads 76ers Over Celtics

By The Associated Press

Philadelphia left the driving to Hal Greer and in return Greer put the 76ers in the driver's seat in their National Basketball Association playoffs with Boston.

Greer popped in 21 points in the fourth quarter and steered the host 76ers by the Celtics 122-114 Thursday night, putting Philadelphia up 2-1 in the Easter Division finals.

The Celtics were moving along right well themselves for a time, making up a 77-67 deficit to go ahead 83-91, but by then defensive ace Bill Russell, Bailey Howell and Satch Sanders each had five fouls with 10:18 left.

"That was the key to the game," Greer said, "With Russell out of there it opened everything up. I just drove the middle and those little jumpers were wide open."

After two games in two nights, the best-of-7 series resumes Sunday in Boston.

While the defending NBA champion 76ers, who lost the first game in Philadelphia, won their second straight, Los Angeles took an almost insurmountable 3-0 lead with a 128-124 triumph over San Francisco.

In the only American Basketball Association game, Jesse Branson came off the bench in the second and fourth quarters and led New Orleans to a commanding 3-1 playoff lead with a 119-103 victory over Dallas in New Orleans.

Jerry West put the Los Angeles on the threshold of winning its best-of-7 Western Division final series by scoring 40 points, including six of the Lakers' last eight points. The teams play in Oakland Saturday night.

New Orleans can wrap up its best-of-7 Western Division final set Saturday night at home, after Branson's heroics.

Branson hit the first eight points of the second period and had eight more before the half as the Buccaneers took the lead for good. He came back in the fourth period with 10 more points to insure the victory.

Casper Shoots 68, Leads Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Billy Casper, golf's quiet man, suddenly turned showman en route to the first round lead in the Masters Golf Tournament.

Casper—for years a rather sombre figure—capered and cavorted over the windy, rolling acres of the Augusta Nation Golf Course Thursday on the way to a four-under-par 68.

That gave him a one-stroke lead over an international quintet including pre-tourney favorite Jack Nicklaus, British Open champion Roberto de Vicenzo of Argentina, tough, young Tony Jacklin of England, Australian Bruce Devlin and tour regular Tommy Aaron.

Tied at 70 were Bob Goalby, Kermit Zarley and Jerry Pittman. PGA champion Don January and Hideyeo Sugimoto, six-time Japanese open champion, and amateur Vinnie Giles were in a group of seven at 71 while defending champion Gay Brewer, Arnold Palmer and South African Gary Player were among the seven tied at par 72.

"I just feel good," Casper said. "I've felt good all week. And after a round like that I feel even better."

He reeled off six birdies, including three on the last five holes and dropped in putts up to a monster of 55 feet.

His actions on the course were in marked contrast to the placid, plodding picture he has presented in recent years.

He joked with the crowd, waved to the gallery, did a little dance step after a good putt, put body english on his shots and registered disapproval with grimaces and groans.

Casper, acknowledged as one of the world's finest players, always before has had his troubles in this particular tournament.

"But now," he said in a serious vein, "now I have an inner peace that permits me ot do everything in my life better."

He is a recent convert to the Mormon religion.

Bill, while aping Palmer's facial expressions on the course, was dressed a la Doug Sanders —all in gold.

Asked if there was any significance in that particular color in this rich tournament, Casper laughed and replied:

"No, none at all. It's not the gold. I'm shooting for the green come Sunday," he said, referring to the green jacket given to Masters champions.

The final two rounds will be televised nationally by CBS-TV, 5-6 p.m., EST Saturday and 4-5:30 p.m., EST Sunday.

Two Over 300 Yards

Nicklaus' Long Drives Amaze Even Himself

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Awed galleries and less-powerful rivals at the Masters have always thought Jack Nicklaus' booming drives were unbelievable.

Big Jack himself says he can't believe some of them, either.

"I hit two of them more than 300 yards—one uphill," Nicklaus said after an opening 69 Thursday on the damp Augusta National Course where the balls didn't roll.

"I couldn't believe I was driving the ball that far," Big Jack said. "On the 17th green I walked 100 paces up hill to get to the ball, which has got to be over 300 yards.

"And on the 13th I only had 115 yards to go after my drive."

The 13th is 420 yards long, which means Nicklaus banged his tee shot 305 yards.

Nicklaus has always been one of pro golf's longest drivers, but he has had trouble keeping the ball in the fairways this spring.

"But I'm driving the ball well now," said the three-time Masters champion as he went into the second round only a shot off the lead.

Nicklaus had a hard time settling down despite his familiarity with the course, on which he holds the Masters record of 271 strokes.

"I was nervous," Nicklaus said, "And it took me four or five holes to calm down."

The blond belter said part of the nervousness may have been brought on by a burning desire to get off to a strong start after failing to qualify last year for the last 36 holes.

BG Coach Bill Fitch Moves To Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Bill Fitch, who transformed also-ran Bowling Green into an NCAA basketball contender in one year, will be the new University of Minnesota coach.

He replaces John Kundla, who resigned under pressure after nine years.

His appointment, which still is subject to approval by the university's Board of Regents, leaked out Thursday night even though university president Malcom Moos had decided to wait for Regents' action before making it public.

Athletic Director Marsh Ryman and university Physicial Education Director Dr. Richard Donnelly have agreed to recommend Fitch for the post. Ryman would not comment Thursday night on the report, however.

"I have talked with Mr. Ryman about the matter," Fitch said when contacted Thursday night at Bowling Green, Ohio. "I will be recommended to the Board of Regents.

"I am delighted with this opportunity. Minnesota is one of the very few coaching positions I would leave Bowling Green to accept."

"I am delighted with this opportunity. Minnesota is one of the very few coaching positions I would leave Bowling Green to accept."

The 36-year-old Fitch has enjoyed a meteoric rise to a major coaching job since he left the basketball coaching position at his alma mater, Coe College, in 1962 to accept the post at the Universtiy of North Dakota.

In five years at the Sioux helm, Fitch took them to three straight North Central Conference Championships and a 94-45 record in five years.

Fitch accepted the Bowling Green post last spring and inherited a team which had completed an 11-13 record in 1966-67. Under Fitch, Bowling Green finished 18-7 this year, won the Mid-American Conference with a 10-2 record and went into the NCAA Tournament before losing to Marquette, 72-71.

What A Pleasure Not Nominated For Derby

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

News of a victory by What A Pleasure in Saturday's Gotham at Aqueduct wouldn't exactly be considered pleasant tidings at Churchill Downs, home of the Kentucky Derby.

The Wheatley Stable 3-year-old was not nominated for the Kentucky Derby, the one Triple Crown race which does not accept supplementary nominations.

Derby or no Derby, What A Pleasure is expected to be one of the favorites for the one-mile, $50,000-added Gotham, a stepping stone to the Wood Memorial which, in turn, is a major Derby test.

What A Pleasure, who posted four victories including the Sapling and Hopeful as a juvenile, won his debut as a 3-year-old by winning a seven-furlong allowance test at Aqueduct April 6.

It was the only the second start and the first victory at more than 6½ furlongs for the Bold Ruler colt. The question of his ability to go a distance of ground is one reason for his not being nominated for the Derby.

Anywhere from eight to 11 are expected to oppose What A Pleasure in the Gotham. Likely starters include Derby eligibles Wise Exchange, Conceited, Bugged, Au Secours, Call Me Prince and Wellpoised. Others are Hand to Hand and Eastern Affair.

Other Derby nominees are among the probable starters in two other races Saturday.

Harbor View Farm's American Native is expected to be the only 3-year-old in the 6½-furlong $30,000-added Inaugural Handicap at Sportsman's Park's opening, and Fiddle Isle and Page are among a likely field of 10 for the six-furlong, $25,000-added Debonair Stakes for 3-year-old colts and gledings at Hollywood Park.

Fourteen have been entered for the $50,000-added Pan American Turf Handicap for 3-year-olds and up over 1½ miles at Gulfstream Park. He's A Smoothie gets the top weight of 121 pounds. Others include Irish Rebellion, Gentleman James and Ginger Fizz.

Tolson Shatters 35 Birds In Row

Gary Tolson broke 35 consecutive birds on the 25-yard range to win the Annie Oakley event during the Wednesday night shoot of the Columbiana County Fish and Game Protective Association.

In other events, the two-man teams of George Hercules and Earl Burlingame and Alfred Cochran and Luther Adkins took top honors during the protector shoot with two victories each.

With one win were Harold Cochran and Burlingame, Ray Thompson and Alfred Cochran, Blaine and Gail Cochran, Ray Thompson and Jessie Myer, Alfred and Bill Cochran, Harold and Larry Cochran and Bob and Alfred Cochran.

Winners of the redbird shoot were Bill Cochran, Jessie Myer, Paul Deshler, Jim Czech, Charles Deshler and Kenny Reynolds.

Bonnie Lee Cochran was named winner of the women's 10-target event.

Paul Saling, club president, reported visitors from Scio, New Philadelphia, Toronto and Pittsburgh attended the shoot.

North Wins Star Game, Stone MVP

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Marshall's George Stone was voted the most valuable player of the North - South All - Star basketball game here Thursday night after scoring 30 points for game-high honors.

Stone and Pan American's Otto Moore, with 21 points, led the North team to a 119-105 victory over the South All - Stars. Marshall's Bob Redd scored nine points for the North while West Virginia's Ron Williams had 11 for the South.

Stone and Moore not only paced the North's scoring but controlled the backboards as the North jumped to a 12-point lead and never trailed.

Trailing by 21 points in the second quarter, the South exploded with a scoring spree by Eddie Biedenbach of North Carolina State and Little All-America Henry Logan of Western Carolina.

Biedenbach scored 10 and Logan eight points in that drive, which narrowed the gap to nine points.

Stone and Moore combined for 13 points early in the third period to take the game out of reach.

Duke's Mike Lewis led the South scoring with 26 points, while Biedenbach had 22 and Logan 15.

Indiana Team Protests Swim Disqualifying

GREENVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Six more events were on the AAU's National Shortcourse Swimming Championship agenda today, but more interest was centered on a protest filed by Indiana University after one of Thursday night's events.

Indiana's 400-yard medley relay team set a new record of 3:28.04 Thursday night, only to be disqualified by a sophisticated electronic judging and timing machine.

The transistorized timer ruled that Indiana's fourth, or anchor man, left the starting block too soon.

Hoosier Coach Dr. James Councilman, protested the decision, maintaining that his man had touched the gutter of the pool instead of the underwater pad which would have triggered his fourth man off safely. Yale was declared the winner in 3:30.41.

Tournament officials said they would review movies of the event today and announce a decision.

Charlie Hickcox of Indiana won the 200-yard medley, one of three events that opened the three-day program Thursday night, in the time of 1:59.30, not quite up to his NCAA record of two weeks ago. Greg Buckingham of Santa Clara, Calif., finished second.

3 Perfect In Freestyle Wrestling

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Three defending champions carried perfect records into the third round of the National AAU Freestyle Wrestling Championships Friday.

Emerging with no black marks after the first two rounds of competition Thursday were Bob Douglas of the Michigan Wrestling Club at 154 pounds; Henk Schenk of the U.S. Army at 213.5 pounds, and heavyweight Larry Kristoff of Chicago's Mayor Daley team.

Under black mark scoring, a loss by fall costs a wrestler four marks; loss by decision, three; draw, two; win by decision, one, and win by a fall, none. Six black marks eliminate a contender.

The system, in two rounds, eliminated 50 wrestlers out of 169 entered.

Champions will be crowned Saturday night to cap three days of competition.

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Billy Casper, golf's quiet man, suddenly turned showman en route to the first round lead in the Masters Golf Tournament.

Casper—for years a rather sombre figure—capered and cavorted over the windy, rolling acres of the Augusta Nation Golf Course Thursday on the way to a four-under-par 68.

That gave him a one-stroke lead over an international quintet including pre-tourney favorite Jack Nicklaus, British Open champion Roberto de Vicenzo of Argentina, tough, young Tony Jacklin of England, Australian Bruce Devlin and tour regular Tommy Aaron.

Tied at 70 were Bob Goalby, Kermit Zarley and Jerry Pittman. PGA champion Don January and Hideyeo Sugimoto, six-time Japanese open champion, and amateur Vinnie Giles were in a group of seven at 71 while defending champion Gay Brewer, Arnold Palmer and South African Gary Player were among the seven tied at par 72.

"I just feel good," Casper said. "I've felt good all week. And after a round like that I feel even better."

He reeled off six birdies, including three on the last five holes and dropped in putts up to a monster of 55 feet.

His actions on the course were in marked contrast to the placid, plodding picture he has presented in recent years.

He joked with the crowd, waved to the gallery, did a little dance step after a good putt, put body english on his shots and registered disapproval with grimaces and groans.

Casper, acknowledged as one of the world's finest players, always before has had his troubles in this particular tour ment.

"But now," he said in a serious vein, "now I have an inner peace that permits me ot do everything in my life better."

He is a recent convert to the Mormon religion.

Bill, while aping Palmer's facial expressions on the course, was dressed a la Doug Sanders —all in gold.

Asked if there was any significance in that particular color in this rich tournament, Casper laughed and replied:

"No, none at all. It's not the gold. I'm shooting for the green come Sunday," he said, referring to the green jacket given to Masters champions.

The final two rounds will be televised nationally by CBS-TV, 5-6 p.m., EST Saturday and 4-5:30 p.m., EST Sunday.

Two Over 300 Yards

Nicklaus' Long Drives Amaze Even Himself

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Awed galleries and less-powerful rivals at the Masters have always thought Jack Nicklaus' booming drives were unbelievable.

Big Jack himself says he can't believe some of them, either.

"I hit two of them more than 300 yards—one uphill," Nicklaus said after an opening 69 Thursday on the damp Augusta National Course where the balls didn't roll.

"I couldn't believe I was driving the ball that far," Big Jack said. "On the 17th green I walked 100 paces up hill to get to the ball, which has got to be over 300 yards.

"And on the 13th I only had 115 yards to go after my drive."

The 13th is 420 yards long, which means Nicklaus banged his tee shot 305 yards.

Nicklaus has always been one of pro golf's longest drivers, but he has had trouble keeping the ball in the fairways this spring.

"But I'm driving the ball well now," said the three-time Masters champion as he went into the second round only a shot off the lead.

Nicklaus had a hard time settling down despite his familiarity with the course, on which he holds the Masters record of 271 strokes.

"I was nervous," Nicklaus said, "And it took me four or five holes to calm down."

The blond belter said part of the nervousness may have been brought on by a burning desire to get off to a strong start after failing to qualify last year for the last 36 holes.

BG Coach Bill Fitch Moves To Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Bill Fitch, who transformed also-ran Bowling Green into an NCAA basketball contender in one year, will be the new University of Minnesota coach.

He replaces John Kundla, who resigned under pressure after nine years.

His appointment, which still is subject to approval by the university's Board of Regents, leaked out Thursday night even though university president Malcom Moos had decided to wait for Regents' action before making it public.

Athletic Director Marsh Ryman and university Physicial Education Director Dr. Richard Donnelly have agreed to recommend Fitch for the post. Ryman would not comment Thursday night on the report, however.

"I have talked with Mr. Ryman about the matter," Fitch said when contacted Thursday night at Bowling Green, Ohio. "I will be recommended to the Board of Regents.

"I am delighted with this opportunity. Minnesota is one of the very few coaching positions I would leave Bowling Green to accept."

"I am delighted with this opportunity. Minnesota is one of the very few coaching positions I would leave Bowling Green to accept."

The 36-year-old Fitch has enjoyed a meteoric rise to a major coaching job since he left the basketball coaching position at his alma mater, Coe College, in 1962 to accept the post at the Universtiy of North Dakota.

In five years at the Sioux helm, Fitch took them to three straight North Central Conference Championships and a 94-45 record in five years.

Fitch accepted the Bowling Green post last spring and inherited a team which had completed an 11-13 record in 1966-67. Under Fitch, Bowling Green finished 18-7 this year, won the Mid-American Conference with a 10-2 record and went into the NCAA Tournament before losing to Marquette, 72-71.

What A Pleasure Not Nominated For Derby

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

News of a victory by What A Pleasure in Saturday's Gotham at Aqueduct wouldn't exactly be considered pleasant tidings at Churchill Downs, home of the Kentucky Derby.

The Wheatley Stable 3-year-old was not nominated for the Kentucky Derby, the one Triple Crown race which does not accept supplementary nominations.

Derby or no Derby, What A Pleasure is expected to be one of the favorites for the one-mile, $50,000-added Gotham, a stepping stone to the Wood Memorial which, in turn, is a major Derby test.

What A Pleasure, who posted four victories including the Sapling and Hopeful as a juvenile, won his debut as a 3-year-old by winning a seven-furlong allowance test at Aqueduct April 6.

It was the only the second start and the first victory at more than 6½ furlongs for the Bold Ruler colt. The question of his ability to go a distance of ground is one reason for his not being nominated for the Derby.

Anywhere from eight to 11 are expected to oppose What A Pleasure in the Gotham. Likely starters include Derby eligibles Wise Exchange, Conceited, Bugged, Au Secours, Call Me Prince and Wellpoised. Others are Hand to Hand and Eastern Affair.

Other Derby nominees are among the probable starters in two other races Saturday.

Harbor View Farm's American Native is expected to be the only 3-year-old in the 6½-furlong $30,000-added Inaugural Handicap at Sportsman's Park's opening, and Fiddle Isle and Page are among a likely field of 10 for the six-furlong, $25,000-added Debonair Stakes for 3-year-old colts and gledings at Hollywood Park.

Fourteen have been entered for the $50,000-added Pan American Turf Handicap for 3-year-olds and up over 1½ miles at Gulfstream Park. He's A Smoothie gets the top weight of 121 pounds. Others include Irish Rebellion, Gentleman James and Ginger Fizz.

Tolson Shatters 35 Birds In Row

Gary Tolson broke 35 consecutive birds on the 25-yard range to win the Annie Oakley event during the Wednesday night shoot of the Columbiana County Fish and Game Protective Association.

In other events, the two-man teams of George Hercules and Earl Burlingame and Alfred Cochran and Luther Adkins took top honors during the protector shoot with two victories each.

With one win were Harold Cochran and Burlingame, Ray Thompson and Alfred Cochran, Blaine and Gail Cochran, Ray Thompson and Jessie Myer, Alfred and Bill Cochran, Harold and Larry Cochran and Bob and Alfred Cochran.

Winners of the redbird shoot were Bill Cochran, Jessie Myer, Paul Deshler, Jim Czech, Charles Deshler and Kenny Reynolds.

Bonnie Lee Cochran was named winner of the women's 10-target event.

Paul Saling, club president, reported visitors from Scio, New Philadelphia, Toronto and Pittsburgh attended the shoot.

North Wins Star Game, Stone MVP

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Marshall's George Stone was voted the most valuable player of the North - South All - Star basketball game here Thursday night after scoring 30 points for game-high honors.

Stone and Pan American's Otto Moore, with 21 points, led the North team to a 119-105 victory over the South All - Stars. Marshall's Bob Redd scored nine points for the North while West Virginia's Ron Williams had 11 for the South.

Stone and Moore not only paced the North's scoring but controlled the backboards as the North jumped to a 12-point lead and never trailed.

Trailing by 21 points in the second quarter, the South exploded with a scoring spree by Eddie Biedenbach of North Carolina State and Little All-America Henry Logan of Western Carolina.

Biedenbach scored 10 and Logan eight points in that drive, which narrowed the gap to nine points.

Stone and Moore combined for 13 points early in the third period to take the game out of reach.

Duke's Mike Lewis led the South scoring with 26 points, while Biedenbach had 22 and Logan 15.

Indiana Team Protests Swim Disqualifying

GREENVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Six more events were on the AAU's National Shortcourse Swimming Championship agenda today, but more interest was centered on a protest filed by Indiana University after one of Thursday night's events.

Indiana's 400-yard medley relay team set a new record of 3:28.04 Thursday night, only to be disqualified by a sophisticated electronic judging and timing machine.

The transistorized timer ruled that Indiana's fourth, or anchor man, left the starting block too soon.

Hoosier Coach Dr. James Councilman, protested the decision, maintaining that his man had touched the gutter of the pool instead of the underwater pad which would have triggered his fourth man off safely. Yale was declared the winner in 3:30.41.

Tournament officials said they would review movies of the event today and announce a decision.

Charlie Hickcox of Indiana won the 200-yard medley, one of three events that opened the three-day program Thursday night, in the time of 1:53.30, not quite up to his NCAA record of two weeks ago. Greg Buckingham of Santa Clara, Calif., finished second.

3 Perfect In Freestyle Wrestling

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Three defending champions carried perfect records into the third round of the National AAU Freestyle Wrestling Championships Friday.

Emerging with no black marks after the first two rounds of competition Thursday were Bob Douglas of the Michigan Wrestling Club at 154 pounds; Henk Schenk of the U.S. Army at 213.5 pounds, and heavyweight Larry Kristoff of Chicago's Mayor Daley team.

Under black mark scoring, a loss by fall costs a wrestler four marks; loss by decision, three; draw, two; win by decision, one, and win by a fall, none. Six black marks eliminate a contender.

The system, in two rounds, eliminated 50 wrestlers out of 169 entered.

Champions will be crowned Saturday night to cap three days of competition.

Claims Discrimination

Memphis St.'s Butler Blasts Olympic Trials

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The U.S. Olympic basketball coach and a man who made the team disagree with Memphis State University's Mike Butler's claim that players from the South "didn't have a chance from the beginning."

Butler, who did not make the Olympic squad, said Thursday that "great, great basketball players didn't have a chance to make the team.

"I honestly do not think it is fair to ask someone to try out for the team and then not give them a fair chance to make it," Butler said.

Hank Iba, the Olympic squad coach, said he didn't know what Butler was talking about.

"It was in the hands of the Olympic Committee," Iba said. "We thought we evaluated every boy in every game. They let the coaches, at the last, check their evaluations and then decide what the team would be." One Southern play Glynn Saulters of Northeast Louisiana, however, did make the Olympic basketball team. Dan Issel of Kentucky was picked as an alternate.

Butler criticized the fact that such players as Louisiana State sophomore All-American Pete Maravich failed to win even an alternate spot on the Olympic team.

But Navy seaman Mike Barrett, who at 6-foot-2 is the smallest player on the Olympic team, said he feels the selection committee was correct in leaving Marvich and Niagara's Calvin Murphy, the nation's two highest scoring collegians, off the team.

"You could tell they were great players," Barrett said. "But it was obvious they were used to handling the ball most of the time. It was difficult for them to adjust to having a whole team of great players with them."

Butler said he played a total of only 28 minutes in five tryout games but sank 10 to 18 field goals.

Nine Horses Die In Fire At Hazel Park

HAZEL PARK, Mich. (AP) — A spokesman at Hazel Park Raceway said he believes nine thoroughbred horses died in a stable fire which totally destroyed a barn valued at $100,000 at the track Thursday night.

The horses belonged to Peter W. Salman of Crimson King Farms, Lathrup Village. Salman operates a Detroit tool and die firm.

The track spokesman said the fire was contained in barn 12 where 13 horses were stabled, including the nine that died.

"They got them out but they ran back in," he said.

Fire officials said no one was injured in the blaze.

The horses that perished were not immediately identified. Firemen were unable to estimate the damages or determine the cause of the fire, the first in the track's 20 years.

Wins Riders Race

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — Tontine, ridden by John Latta of Coatesville, Pa., won the grand championship in the 100-mile ride sponsored by the Virginia Trail Riders Association Thursday.

Pittsburgh Stadium Progressing

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Construction bids for the North Side stadium have been approved by the Pittsburgh Stadium Authority.

The authority okayed bids totaling $26,122,086 Thursday, but pointed out various other features will push the cost to $28,380,000.

City council will take action on the bids next Monday.

Groundbreaking for the 50,000-seat stadium is scheduled for April 25. It's hoped the stadium will be ready for use in the spring of 1970.

Cal Coach Herrerias Resigns Post

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Rene Herrerias, who quit as basketball coach at the University of California Thursday, says, "The Negro situation was a factor but not the sole factor."

Although plagued by racial friction during his eighth season as coach, Herrerias, 42, said only a few days ago he would serve out his contract, which had a year to go.

Herrerias suspended Negro center Bob Presley in January for training rule infractions, but quickly reinstated him.

White players asserted that the university administration forced the reinstatement, but Herrerias denied it.

A 40-member campus group, the Black Athletes Union, then demanded that Herrerias, two football aides and a business manager be fired. The Negroes also sought economic, social and housing equality, threatening to boycott all California athletics to back their demands.

An investigative committee named by Chancellor Roger W. Heyns recommended efforts to improve racial relations and to add to coaching, administrative and training staffs from minority groups.

The black athletes said they would hold off their boycott until they saw whether the recommendations were followed.

Herrerias, whose resignation is effective July 1, said his sudden move was "for the best interests of my family and myself."

NCAA Finals Shifted To Afternoon

NEW YORK (AP) — The NCAA and National Invitation, the two major postseason college basketball tournaments, may oppose each other next season on television.

Television rights to the NCAA Tournament were awarded Thursday to the National Broadcasting Co. with the announcement that the 1969 title game in Louisville, Ky., will be played Saturday afternoon, March 22.

The NIT final for the past few years has been played on the corresponding Saturday afternoon and been telecast by the Columbia Broadcasting System.

The cost of the package to NBC was not disclosed but was estimated to be between $750,000 and $1 million.

Gymnastic Show Set Wednesday At Midland High

The annual gym exhibition by students of Lincoln High School will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. The event is sponsored jointly by Miss Eugenia O'Hara, girls physical education instructor and Charles Price, boys instructor.

"Color-Rama" is the theme because of the many colors used, especially in the ribbon and balloon dance by the junior and senior girls.

The girls will also work on the newly - acquired balance beam, do free exercise and the Sher-Israeli dance.

The boys will do stunts on the horse, high bar, rings, buck horse, parallel bars and the trampoline.

Boys and girls will participate in double stunts, vaulting with buck, min-itramp and parallel.

They will hold dress rehearsal for students of 4th St. School and the eighth grade of Presentation School Tuesday afternoon at the gym.

Cincinnati Calm, Guards Due To Leave

CINCINNATI (AP) — The city remained calm today and officials said they felt National Guardsmen who were called in to help police in the face of rioting Monday night would be pulled out.

Police officials said the "separation of the guard from police operations" would come sometime today.

Mayor Eugene Ruehlmann told newsmen that the original 1,400-member guard force had gradually been reduced since rioting subsided. He declined to give details.

Thursday, police charged a young Negro with inciting to riot in connection with the disorder which claimed two lives.

Pittsburgh Cooling, Guards Pulling Out

PITTSBURGH (AP) — National Guardsmen are rumbling out of the city as Negro sections cool to normal.

The pullout started Thursday night. Those leaving today would push the pullout total to some 1,100.

Those still in the city were removed from the streets Thursday night. They were pulled back to staging areas.

Memphis St.'s Butler Blasts Olympic Trials

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The U.S. Olympic basketball coach and a man who made the team disagree with Memphis State University's Mike Butler's claim that players from the South "didn't have a chance from the beginning."

Butler, who did not make the Olympic squad, said Thursday that "great, great basketball players didn't have a chance to make the team.

"I honestly do not think it is fair to ask someone to try out for the team and then not give them a fair chance to make it," Butler said.

Hank Iba, the Olympic squad coach, said he didn't know what Butler was talking about.

"It was in the hands of the Olympic Committee," Iba said. "We thought we evaluated every boy in every game. They let the coaches, at the last, check their evaluations and then decide what the team would be." One Southern play Glynn Saulters of Northeast Louisiana, however, did make the Olympic basketball team. Dan Issel of Kentucky was picked as an alternate.

Butler criticized the fact that such players as Louisiana State sophomore All-American Pete Maravich failed to win even an alternate spot on the Olympic team.

But Navy seaman Mike Barrett, who at 6-foot-2 is the smallest player on the Olympic team, said he feels the selection committee was correct in leaving Marvich and Niagara's Calvin Murphy, the nation's two highest scoring collegians, off the team.

"You could tell they were great players," Barrett said. "But it was obvious they were used to handling the ball most of the time. It was difficult for them to adjust to having a whole team of great players with them."

Butler said he played a total of only 28 minutes in five tryout games but sank 10 to 18 field goals.

Nine Horses Die In Fire At Hazel Park

HAZEL PARK, Mich. (AP) — A spokesman at Hazel Park Raceway said he believes nine thoroughbred horses died in a stable fire which totally destroyed a barn valued at $100,000 at the track Thursday night.

The horses belonged to Peter W. Salman of Crimson King Farms, Lathrup Village. Salman operates a Detroit tool and die firm.

The track spokesman said the fire was contained in barn 12 where 13 horses were stabled, including the nine that died.

"They got them out but they ran back in," he said.

Fire officials said no one was injured in the blaze.

The horses that perished were not immediately identified. Firemen were unable to estimate the damages or determine the cause of the fire, the first in the track's 20 years.

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — Tontine, ridden by John Latta of Coatesville, Pa., won the grand championship in the 100-mile ride sponsored by the Virginia Trail Riders Association Thursday.

Pittsburgh Stadium Progressing

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Construction bids for the North Side stadium have been approved by the Pittsburgh Stadium Authority.

The authority okayed bids totaling $26,122,086 Thursday, but pointed out various other features will push the cost to $28,380,000.

City council will take action on the bids next Monday.

Groundbreaking for the 50,000-seat stadium is scheduled for April 25. It's hoped the stadium will be ready for use in the spring of 1970.

Cal Coach Herrerias Resigns Post

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Rene Herrerias, who quit as basketball coach at the University of California Thursday, says, "The Negro situation was a factor but not the sole factor."

Although plagued by racial friction during his eighth season as coach, Herrerias, 42, said only a few days ago he would serve out his contract, which had a year to go.

Herrerias suspended Negro center Bob Presley in January for training rule infractions, but quickly reinstated him.

White players asserted that the university administration forced the reinstatement, but Herrerias denied it.

A 40-member campus group, the Black Athletes Union, then demanded that Herrerias, two football aides and a business manager be fired. The Negroes also sought economic, social and housing equality, threatening to boycott all California athletics to back their demands.

An investigative committee named by Chancellor Roger W. Heyns recommended efforts to improve racial relations and to add to coaching, administrative and training staffs from minority groups.

The black athletes said they would hold off their boycott until they saw whether the recommendations were followed.

Herrerias, whose resignation is effective July 1, said his sudden move was "for the best interests of my family and myself."

NCAA Finals Shifted To Afternoon

NEW YORK (AP) — The NCAA and National Invitation, the two major postseason college basketball tournaments, may oppose each other next season on television.

Television rights to the NCAA Tournament were awarded Thursday to the National Broadcasting Co. with the announcement that the 1969 title game in Louisville, Ky., will be played Saturday afternoon, March 22.

The NIT final for the past few years has been played on the corresponding Saturday afternoon and been telecast by the Columbia Broadcasting System.

The cost of the package to NBC was not disclosed but was estimated to be between $750,000 and $1 million.

Cincinnati Calm, Guards Due To Leave

CINCINNATI (AP) — The city remained calm today and officials said they felt National Guardsmen who were called in to help police in the face of rioting Monday night would be pulled out.

Police officials said the "separation of the guard from police operations" would come sometime today.

Mayor Eugene Ruehlmann told newsmen that the original 1,400-member guard force had gradually been reduced since rioting subsided. He declined to give details.

Thursday, police charged a young Negro with inciting to riot in connection with the disorder which claimed two lives.

Pittsburgh Cooling, Guards Pulling Out

The pullout started Thursday night. Those leaving today would push the pullout total to some 1,100.

Those still in the city were removed from the streets Thursday night. They were pulled back to staging areas.

Junior Editors Quiz on EYEBROWS

QUESTION: What good are eyebrows?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Your eyes are the most marvelous of optical instruments — delicate, beautifully adjusted, full of intricate mechanisms. Nature has not only given you two almost miraculous eyeballs, but has enclosed them in strong carrying cases so they can go on serving you without damage. These cases are the bony sockets of the skull, into which the eyeballs fit neatly. Parts of the skull project, so that something striking your face cannot easily damage the eye. The brow, on top, protects the eye below especially well. The hairs of the eyebrow follow the outer rim of the bone below and act as the buffer to soften the shock of something striking the brow. Besides this, both eyebrows and eyelashes act to screen out dust and other things before they get in the eye. Eyebrows have another very important function. Along with the lips, they are the most movable features of the face and play a great part in conveying various facial expressions such as surprise, happiness, anger and so on. Check the expressions our artist has drawn and notice what the eyebrows are doing in each case.

★ ★ ★

Debby Phillips of Riverside, Conn., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's World Yearbook if your question, mailed to Junior Editors on a postcard in care of The Review, is selected for a prize.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How should furs be dried?

A.—Never dry a fur that has been worn in rain or snow near any heat, since this could injure it. Instead, remove the excess moisture with a dry cloth, then hang the fur in a cool place to dry.

Q. — How can I make my own rug shampoo at home?

A. — Simply mix up a bucket of lukewarm water with rich, mild soapsuds — soak a cloth or brush in the suds, and using only the suds, scrub a small area of the carpet with this. Dip another rough cloth into a bucket of clear warm water to which a little powdered alum has been added, and wipe off the suds with this.

Q. — How can I clean off old stains from leather upholstery?

A. — By coating with a mixture of powdered pipe clay and water, mixed to a paste. Allow this to remain for several hours then brush off, repeating the routine if necessary.

Q.—What's the best way to cut off excess carpeting?

A.—Turn the carpet upside down, and use a very sharp knife to sever the cords. As a guide for making a straight cut, keep the knife blade between two parallel filler or warp strands.

Q.—What can I do about rust stains on washable materials?

A.—Place a teaspoonful of cream of tartar on the spot, tie with a thin cord to form a bag shape, then drop the whole business into your wash machine and, when laundered, the stain should have departed.

Junior Editors Quiz on EYEBROWS

QUESTION: What good are eyebrows?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Your eyes are the most marvelous of optical instruments — delicate, beautifully adjusted, full of intricate mechanisms. Nature has not only given you two almost miraculous eyeballs, but has enclosed them in strong carrying cases so they can go on serving you without damage. These cases are the bony sockets of the skull, into which the eyeballs fit neatly. Parts of the skull project, so that something striking your face cannot easily damage the eye. The brow, on top, protects the eye below especially well. The hairs of the eyebrow follow the outer rim of the bone below and act as the buffer to soften the shock of something striking the brow. Besides this, both eyebrows and eyelashes act to screen out dust and other things before they get in the eye. Eyebrows have another very important function. Along with the lips, they are the most movable features of the face and play a great part in conveying various facial expressions such as surprise, happiness, anger and so on. Check the expressions our artist has drawn and notice what the eyebrows are doing in each case.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How should furs be dried?

A.—Never dry a fur that has been worn in rain or snow near any heat, since this could injure it. Instead, remove the excess moisture with a dry cloth, then hang the fur in a cool place to dry.

Q. — How can I make my own rug shampoo at home?

A. — Simply mix up a bucket of lukewarm water with rich, mild soapsuds -- soak a cloth or brush in the suds, and using only the suds, scrub a small area of the carpet with this. Dip another rough cloth into a bucket of clear warm water to which a little powdered alum has been added, and wipe off the suds with this.

Q. — How can I clean off old stains from leather upholstery?

A. — By coating with a mixture of powdered pipe clay and water, mixed to a paste. Allow this to remain for several hours then brush off, repeating the routine if necessary.

Q.—What's the best way to cut off excess carpeting?

A.—Turn the carpet upside down, and use a very sharp knife to sever the cords. As a guide for making a straight cut, keep the knife blade between two parallel filler or warp strands.

Q.—What can I do about rust stains on washable materials?

A.—Place a teaspoonful of cream of tartar on the spot, tie with a thin cord to form a bag shape, then drop the whole business into your wash machine and, when laundered, the stain should have departed.
